(Ts3) LPT01 Why don't people like movies without sound? A person who started up movies must have thought very hard. It is impossible to make a movie. It is impossible, just as most other things are impossible. When you become a philosopher in this generation, you laugh — you laugh hard — because things are upside down. You laugh because the world presents itself as serious and logical, but the philosopher sees the cracks. The philosopher sees how much of what we call reality is built on agreements we never signed. You laugh because the absurdity is so obvious that crying would be the less rational response.

(Ts1) LPT02 Being stupid is simply thinking that you have problems. Consider this: a person who believes they have problems carries the weight of those problems everywhere. But a person who understands that nothing is a problem — that things simply are what they are — walks lightly. The difference is not in the circumstances but in the understanding. To think you have problems is to already be defeated. To know that problems are only thoughts, and thoughts can be changed, is the beginning of wisdom.

LPT03 Whatever happens is caused by the earth. Nature has nothing to do with you. Whatever happens is caused by people. We live in a generation of impossibility — but if people work together, whatever is impossible is made possible. Look around you: every building, every road, every piece of technology was once impossible in someone's mind. The only thing that changed was that people decided to work together. The earth provides the materials, but people provide the will.

LPT04 Once you leave the present, you are gone, you are done. Nothing good is left of you. Once you think of anything, it is false. The past is a memory, and memories are not the truth — they are interpretations. The future is a guess. Only the present moment is real, and even that escapes you the moment you try to hold it. This is why the philosopher lives in the now. Not because it is easy, but because there is nowhere else to live.

LPT05 Nothing is a problem. If you think that something is a problem, turn it into good. Learn from it, so that it may be beneficial to you. You will enjoy life when what makes other people run away — you deal with in a simple way. The difference between a wise person and a fool is not that the wise person never faces difficulty. It is that the wise person faces the same difficulties but does not call them problems. They call them experiences, lessons, or simply life.

(Ts3) LPT06 "What can my hands do, what can my feet do, what can my mind do?" These are words that Leon spoke to keep his spirit within him. Most of the time, Leon's spirit could leave him and go far away from him, so he used these words to bring his spirit back into him. Some people don't realize that they are animals. They believe that humans are not animals. But look at yourself: you eat, you sleep, you reproduce, you die. These are the marks of an animal. The only difference is that you have convinced yourself otherwise. The moment you accept that you are an animal, you stop pretending to be something else, and you can begin to understand what you truly are.

(Ts2) LPT07 Man, don't you know that the gods put us here to test us? They learn from us — how we behave, how we react. Therefore, do good and be kind. Don't you think there are those mightier than you? The gods watch. They observe. Every action you take is data for them. Every choice reveals something about the nature of the creatures they made. This is why you must be careful with your actions. Not because of punishment or reward, but because you are being studied. Your life is an experiment, and you are both the subject and the observer.

(Ts1) LPT08 I said to myself: if I ever see a hen that hatched her chicks today, and the next day her chicks are totally grown, I will do evil instead of good. But I have never seen such a thing. Nature takes its time. Everything grows at its own pace. Patience is not a virtue you choose — it is a reality you accept. If a hen cannot rush her chicks, why do you rush your life?

(Ts2) LPT09 If you want to learn about people, study animal behaviors. Humans are the only animals that try to change what they are — forgetting that the Gods are there. A dog does not try to be a cat. A bird does not wish it could swim like a fish. But humans are never satisfied with what they are. They want to be richer, smarter, more beautiful, younger. In trying to change what they are, they forget what they were. And in forgetting what they were, they lose themselves entirely.

(Ts3) LPT10 A man goes into the kitchen and prepares food until it is ready. Then when he serves himself, he first says, "Thanks to the Gods." Man, look carefully at this: there is no God who helped you. You did the work yourself. All this "thanks be to the Gods" — it is propaganda. It is a damn lie. Don't look at life in any other way. See yourself as an animal, and that is all, because it is what you are. You prepared the food. Your hands did the work. Give thanks to your own hands, to your own mind, to your own body. The Gods were not in the kitchen with you.

(Ts1) LPT11 When you realize that you are an animal, you will gain understanding about what to think. The animal does not worry about what others think. The animal does not compare itself to other animals. The animal simply is. When you accept this, your thoughts become simpler, clearer, and more truthful. You stop thinking about what you should be and start being what you are.

(Ts1) LPT12 It is a shame that my spirit spends all its time wandering, benefiting not me, and I gain nothing in my thoughts. My spirit travels to places I have never been, imagines lives I have never lived, and dreams of futures that will never come. And what do I gain? Nothing. The wandering spirit is a restless spirit, and a restless spirit is a tired spirit. Bring it back. Anchor it to the present. Let it rest in what is, not in what could be.

(Ts1) LPT13 Why brag, oh man? Maybe you just don't understand that your life is only air. You are here today, and tomorrow you are not. Your achievements, your possessions, your reputation — all air. The wind blows, and they scatter. The bragging man is a fool because he brags about things that will not last. The wise man knows that even he himself will not last, so what is there to brag about?

(Ts5) LPT14 May I die tomorrow. May my laptop die. May my smartphones collapse. May my businesses die. Have understanding, man. Whatever you think of is false. Whatever you wish or pray for will not happen — unless you make it happen. But think of this, you man: what you cannot build, why destroy? A laptop you cannot make. A smartphone you cannot make. Making one smartphone is more expensive than making a hundred smartphones. So why destroy what you cannot create? This is the wisdom of the philosopher: to preserve what you do not understand, to protect what you cannot replace.

LPT15 All life is in the Thirteen Files of Leon (TTFL). The files are not just documents — they are a system of living. In them is everything a person needs to understand existence, to navigate the world, to find peace. The Thirteen Files are the map. Without them, you wander. With them, you walk a straight path.

(Ts3) LPT16 Don't you realize that when you climb up a ladder, you create a probability of you falling? I don't mean that when you climb a ladder you will fall, but you create a small probability of you falling. Whenever you do something, a probability is created. It might not be a big probability, but it is created. When you start a business, you create a probability of your business succeeding and a probability of your business failing. This is the nature of action. Every action creates possibilities. To act is to gamble. The wise person does not avoid gambling — that is impossible. The wise person simply knows the odds and plays accordingly.

(Ts6) LPT17 "What can my hands do, what can my mind do, what can my legs do?" Your hands can do the work before them. Your legs can stand where they are standing. Your mind can focus on the job before it, with BVM. That is it. Make your hands do the job before them. Make your feet stand where they are standing. Let your mind focus on the job before it with BVM. This is DSFM: Do, Stand, Focus, and Memorize. To do is to realize that your hands are not you — they are tools that you can use to perform the tasks before you. The standing does not mean you should stand up to do what you should do; it is realizing that where I am standing is the right place for me to stand, to be in order to DO my tasks. Then focus: direct your mind to concentrate on the doing, doing what you are doing with great passion, and memorizing the BVM. These four actions contain all of life's work.

(Ts5) LPT18 Some animals are wiser than people — simply because they don't have legs like those of humans, so they are limited. But their minds are far better than the minds of humans. Humans are not the most brilliant animals on earth, though they can be. This is how they can achieve brilliance: humans have the tendency to learn from other animals, so the minds of humans become brilliant after learning from the brilliance of other animals. That is it. Humans only learn from other animals to be wise. They are a collection of wisdom from other animals. In other words, human minds are a collection of wisdom from animals (CWA). A mind is a collection of wisdom from others (CWO). If humans want to be brilliant, all they need is to study the wisdom of other animals. Watch the ant, and you learn patience. Watch the cat, and you learn independence. Watch the bird, and you learn freedom.

(Ts2) LPT19 I had blocked most of the holes where rats could pass to enter my room, but I was surprised when I saw a rat passing through a hole that was difficult to notice. Rats are wise. They find ways where you thought there were none. They persist where you thought they would give up. This is the wisdom of the rat: to keep looking, to keep trying, to find the hole that everyone else has overlooked. Be like the rat.

(Ts3) LPT20 Why are nations deeply moved? Why do the leaders rage, neglecting Spiritual Teachings and running after the wisdom of Archimedes? Do you think understanding has ceased, or that wisdom no longer exists among the sons of men? Nations will not have peace, and safety shall flee from the inhabitants of men. If you do not teach the Spiritual Teachings among your schools, and do not consider them as a general discipline, then, as I have said unto you, peace shall flee from you. Science without wisdom is destruction. Knowledge without understanding is chaos. The world runs after what is new and ignores what is true. And so the world suffers.

(Ts2) LPT21 What then? By this time I should have been dead. See, all my desires were fulfilled and my needs were achieved. Why would I then wait? And what is it that I seek from the world, instead of doing good only? Yes, I should only seek after good, because whatsoever I want and whatsoever I need, I will definitely get it. When all your desires are fulfilled, you face a strange emptiness. There is nothing left to want. And in that emptiness, you realize that wanting was never the point. Being good — that was the point all along.

(Ts3) LPT22 Since we know that true things (1) are always limited, we can use this. What you think about as a negative in the false world (0), in the true world it may be negative, but still it is limited compared to what you imagined. If you think that if you fail to pay someone, they will come with a panga, you will be surprised that those people in the true world only came with a stick to beat you. If you think that the workers in your business are stealing from you, they might be stealing, but not as much as you think. The imagination always exaggerates. The truth is always smaller. Remember this, and you will worry less.

(Ts4) LPT23 "The true thing is that I don't have money. The false thing is that I have money." From these seventeen words, special understanding comes forth. The understanding that things change — yes, things change. Indeed, things change. Just turn the words "true" and "false." No, no, you cannot do anything to change them. If you change them, then that is false. But be patient with time, and the words "true" and "false" will change themselves. Say those words aloud to yourself. With time, the words will change themselves. This is the philosophy of inversion: what is true today may be false tomorrow, not because reality changed, but because you changed.

(Ts3) LPT24 But thanks to the Gods that in all things, a human can have whatever they want. But think of this: every person thinks with their own mind, so every person's path is different. When you are trying to speak with someone, see that you convince them to add your perception to their false world, so that they may act in the true world. So, it is all about convincing. That is all you can do: convince them. Let your perception go deep into their minds. Change their false world, and you change their actions.

(Ts4) LPT25 Then what is left of me to do, what must I do? This question may arise in you, but your response to this should be “my thoughts caused me to this, and so I can deny it, and I can terminate it, by thinking the opposite of it”. Some of the circumstances where this may occur is about feeling about sexual relations, but you can deny it, and terminate anything that makes think about such. For instance, if you are still young to have a girlfriend, instead of going on a dating app, use this thinking, destroy whatever that makes you think about sexual relations, then live.

(Ts6) LPT26 With time, things just increase, and they don't decrease, so you should always plan of having a bigger space, even when today you are only having a mattress. That's how nature is, nothing is wasted in nature, all things are given to a particular thing at a particular time, nothing is wasted. Nothing is good, and nothing is bad, it is just what you see it is. It is better to see what other people in the society see, if a society considers some things to be good, then you should also consider that as good, if the society considers something to be bad, then you should also consider that to be bad. Look at the small ants, the all work together in collecting their food, if a particular ant refuses to collect food, or if it sees that collecting food is a bad thing, then that ant has gone against the society, and I don't think that things will be good for that ant, it should just collaborate with the other ants in the society for the things to move well.

(Ts2) LPT27 Having one thing of the things you need is not so good, it is like you don't need that particular thing. There should be a difference between the things you need and the things you want. With the things you need you should have more than one thing, and with the things you want, you can have one thing.

(Ts7) LPT28 when you plan to talk to someone about something, you should consider these things first; your perception, their perception, alternative. You first collect all the points that support your perception, these points should be strong, that they can affect the perception of the person you are going to speak with. Then, collect the points of the perception of that other person, if they have already taken an action, and you want them to change that action, find the purpose, and cause of the action they took, your perception should be strong enough to outweigh the perception of those people. Then, look into the possible alternatives which strongly support your side, and that's it. If you are to communicate to any person about something, first consider these steps; your perception (YP), their perception (TP), Your alternatives (YA) (YPTPYA). In communication, it's about YPTPYA, Your Perception, Their Perception, Your Alternatives. If your perception (YP) can't outweigh their perception (TP), then consider at making a strong alternative (YA).

(Ts5) LPT29 Failure to give your perception is drunkenness, or madness, it's people who are drunk who should not respond their perceptions. If they ask you, why don't you want to study from school? To this question, there are many answers that a person can give, and the answers that a person gives, shows their state of mind, or their perception; but a mad person, or a person who is drunk can answer this question like; "Why should I come to school". This is an empty answer, it has no perception in it, it is like the one who answers this way has no sense, having no sense is "not having perception", and in perception, you either have good, or bad, it is ok to have a bad perception, than not to have a perception, that is why it is better not to smoke than to smoke, because after you smoke, you lose your perception.

(Ts1) LPT30 Schooling and studying are two different things; schooling is going to school and study from school, studying is to study in any place and at any time.

(Ts1) LPT31 It is not about being right in your perception, it is about convincing other people that your perception is the best, or alternatively the best.

(Ts2) LPT32 Nothing is good than being a philosopher, because all what happens is in your favor, even death; I will say, "let me go and I write about what happens this side, let me see what happens here."

(Vi2) LPT33 Run, that you have hide yourself, or shameful man, hiding would have been good, but you go with the worst into your hiding, you take your mind with you, and you think that you have hidden yourself.

(Ts6) LPT34 The mind is the best enemy, and the best friend, the best warmth and the best cold, the mind is the people, if you deal with the mind, you will realize that you are wise, but if you deal with the body, then trouble. Deal with the mind, not the body, Knowing this first, that all humans have one mind, just like all humans have the same body, also the same mind, the laws that govern the human body, governs all bodies, whether male or female; a hot coal feels hot to all bodies, therefore a good perception is good to all minds. Learn the principles of the mind, and you won't bother yourself with most things. To be stupid is to be wise, to fail is to succeed, to cry is to feel joy, and to die is to live. That is one of the principles of the mind, who has seen it. Who has understanding, among you sons of men, who really understands my wisdom, and who can turn my secrets upside down.

(Ts3) LPT35 I look at the thoughts that made my heart strongly move, and I find nothing good in them. Therefore; a decree I bring forth; if anyone ever denies the “Thoughts File”, they will perish. It is better to live what you wanted to live in the past, if you think of something Today, don’t do it today, do it after 2 days, that is what the Thoughts file is telling us.

(Ts6) LPT36 What happens is that when we write to do things after two days, the interest about those things die, or it is hidden within our mind, so the mind is driven by the things by the things it wats, not by the things it wanted, by this, the mind works, when you want to go in the garden today, if you write that thought in the thoughts File, after two days, you might not want to going the garden, this is because after two days, your mind would have found other things that interest it, so going in the garden will feel like a no sense thing, or something that is not profitable, or that you will gain nothing from it. The mind wants most the things that it gains from, in anything that you do, there is some benefit, that is why you are doing it, trust me with this, for everything you do, there is a gain, that is why you are doing it, so it is not the body that does things, but it is the mind that does things. I think it would be better if we live two days back, I think it would monitor our minds, if we live two days back.

(Ts6) LPT37 We should believe that we can’t and we were not created to live ten, or twenty lives, we were created to live one life, one life, it makes no sense, if you are a footballer, and a musician, that is no sense, it is no sense for you to be a banker and a taxi driver, it is no sense, instead, if each person could focus on one work, and their lives, life would have been easy, that is what the Gods want of you, a writer who writes for 16 hours is better that a writer who writes for 2 hours and spends the other time in music, it should be simple, are you a musician, then sing only, why go into music production, if you are a writer, why do you go into app development, a politician, why do you go in business. Don't you know, that a person who dies at 20 years when he was a musician, is better than a musician and politician who dies at 90 years, I think that this is what the Gods want.

(Ts17) LPT38 It is about doing what you must do; that is it, get your work, hold on that, and all the thoughts that come that don't point at your work, don't consider them, focus on your work, you must, if you are a writer, all the thoughts that you should write in the Thoughts file; they should evolve around your personality. This is what I have called personality (PS); in all that you do, follow your personality; I can ignore all the files, simply just because I changed my personality, that is it; I can do anything, just because I ignored my personality; What is your Personality (PS), this is Leon's Personality; I write Teachings, I use word document, excel, and presentation; this points, that Leon's Personality is a Writer and this gives "WPS" which means Writers Personality. This is where I find my peace, it is where the Gods called me to, and what is expected of me; is to live my all life in this, in word, excel, and presentation, anything on top of this, I am changing my Personality (PS), and when I change my personality, I am changing my mind, and when I change my mind, I am destroying myself. I don't think that anyone will see the gods, if those people change their minds. Change in personality comes after you write thoughts that are outside your personality, or when you do things outside your personality, That is how the change in personality comes, for example, if I am a Writer, I should not write thoughts of creating an app, there is another person, somewhere, who can do that, if I need an app, I just have to talk to the people with those personalities; App Development Personality (ADP), if I think of thoughts of making an app by myself, then; I have changed my Personality, and if my personality changes, then all my files are affected, and they should change, most of which I may even terminate, because a change in personality (PS), can cause bad things to be good; a change in personality, can cause; mother to be father, and father to be mother; is this possible, no, unless on another planet and not on earth. A change in personality; is contrary to nature, it is contrary to the Gods, it can't work, a cat cannot be a dog, a cockroach can't be a rat, a cow can't be a man. Therefore; this is what changing a personality is, you move from the right road, you go off, from the truck, this can't work. Just because you are able to do something, it doesn't mean that it is what you should do, if we can't monitor this, don't worry, the "Thoughts File" will guide you, when you think of doing something that is outside your Personality (PS), write it in the Thoughts file, but put an x on it, that you show that it is out of your personality (PS), you shouldn't think of doing such thing, and you shouldn't try doing it. Because if you do those things, are going to be driven away, and your Personality (PS) will change.

(Ts1) LPT39 "They are all thoughts". After considering this saying, you should know how to treat thoughts.

(Ts1) LPT40 I used more than 2 hours to put up a bulb light in a room, that is something I could do within 10 seconds in my mind.

(Ts7) LPT41 The mind only wants where it benefits from, without a cue, a craving and a reward, the mind won't work. The CCR, which mean cue, craving and reward, are the food of the mind, the mind does not eat the food of the stomach, but its food is CCR. Without any of those, your mind sees nothing, it sees like it is working for nothing, as a result, the mind looks for other alternatives, which at least have little of the CCR, but it refuses to work in vain, for example; if you wanted to go in the garden two days back, and you remembered to go there today, if the CRR is canceled, then; the mind would search for an alternative with a less CCR, but not to go in the garden, where there is no CCR, like the mind may choose to watch television, instead of going to the garden where there is no CCR. In other words, for you to do something, create a strong CCR, so that your mind won't move away from that. If you don't want to go to work, but when you have to go there, make CCRs that interest your mind to be at the workplace. If you want to be a footballer, make strong CCRs in football, for example; I actually don't know the cues of football, but you make interests in what you are doing, rather than to work in vain.

(Ts21 & Vi21) LPT42 In the cue, craving, and reward, (CCR) the reward makes little sense, most times we do things, and we come to their end that it is always negative, the reward is negative but we still do those things, like shouting with people is not a good thing, but most people do it many times, yet every time they do it, they regret that it wasn't a good thing, and yet still when the cue, and the craving comes, they again do it, so it is not about the reward, it is mostly about the craving, but to the cue also. The craving is the most prominent among these, it is that desire that makes you want to do something, the cue is that thing that causes that craving to come, the reward we won't focus much about it, because after all nothing is good and nothing is bad. We may control our cue, but a person who control their craving are always the best; a craving may be controlled by simply knowing; "There is no reward in what we do". It is hard to keep away from cues, because even getting a perfume is a cue, getting money is a cue, getting a shoe is a cue, moving outside of the house is a cue, talking to a person is a cue. We can only limit ourselves from dangerous cue, like getting very expensive perfumes, if you get a perfume of $100,000, you may get a craving of wanting to sleep with Beyonce, getting too much money; may give you a craving of having seven wives, getting a shoe of $1 million; may give you a craving of becoming the president of the United states, moving outside of the house at night may give you a craving of wanting to urinate in a compound simply because no one is seeing, talking to a judge; may give you a craving of wanting to bribe. The cue can be prevented; if a person watches their actions, but it is very hard to control a craving, because a craving can involve probability or assurance; for example; if you move out of the house at night, some people are likely to urinate in the compound or near the compound, this may happen; because you are sure that no one is seeing at night, or that if someone is seeing, they are one person and not many people, so if you don't urinate in the compound, it would look like you are a stupid person to your mind, and it is hard to resist this hit; because no one want to be stupid. A craving can make all your mind focus on one thing, for example; if you are a writer, and you get a craving in App development, first; you already have skills in writing, but no skills in app development, therefore, you will become a baby again in app development, and you will ignore writing; where you had plenty of skills and you were a president, but know that you only become a baby in app development, in other fields you remain a president, now, think of this, do you know that to start learning something new, you must first refresh your brain, but there is no way you can refresh your brain; what I am saying is this; a person who writes, sits in a different way while eating, and a person who builds apps, sits in a different way while eating, if you change from writing to app development, you might not change your way of sitting while eating, and do you know what that leads to; confusion of cues. Let us be honest, would you like your wife to wake up one day and she says that now; I am a man, or would you be happy when your child one day tells you that they are a dog, no that is not good and fair, and normal, or think that your boss one day says that they have also gained the same skills of yours and that they want to replace you, no, that is not fair at all, and I think that the Gods wouldn't also like such a thing. We think that it is our body that works, but no, it is the mind that works, if you believe this; then focus your mind on one thing, the Gods did no mistake to give you one mind, though they gave you two legs, you have one mind. And your mind, you did not get it from your mother, the mind is the spirit, and it rests within the mind, the spirit lives within the mind, not in the whole body, when you die, your spirit leaves your mind, so the mind, is just where the spirit lives. When you want to learn a new skill, you leave being an adult at your former skill, and you become a baby at your current skill, unfortunately, your spirit doesn't want to be a baby again, and it does not become a baby, but some part of your mind becomes a baby and the other part remains an adult; it is all confusion. Every person was created for a purpose, no matter what you do, stick to that skill; don't you see Jesus, he remained at the skill of preaching since childhood, when he had grown, he performed even miracles in his skill, what about you, son of man, can you perform any miracle in your skill, you are a writer, and you want to learn also skills in app development, but

are the best writer, have you performed any miracle in writing before you change, young man; the Gods will ask you, what did you do, you will say; "I wrote", yet not even more than 1 million people read your writings, you say "I built apps, yet not more than 1 million people used your apps, you say; "I wrote songs", yet not more than 1 million people heard your songs", because in every skill where you went, you only went there for fun, and at last, when death ceased you, you had not reached to mutuality of your skills. There are a lot of skills in the world, to say; we haven't discovered 0.001% of the skills in the world, trust me, there is a person who should make only one leg of an ant, another person, should make a nail of a person, another person should make one hair on the head, if the Gods, are there, and thanks, they are, how many do you think, they are, we are not even 0.001% of a quarter their population, but you, oh, man, you jump from one job to another, you jump into skills like a cat playing, or you man, will you get any job in heaven, in heaven if they are to take one writer; I'm sure it would be Moses, one footballer, it would be Pele, one preacher, it would be Jesus; why? These men only focused on what they had to do, only, and only, you are a carpenter, but are you the best carpenter ever lived, it makes no sense for the world to know you as the best carpenter, but it makes sense for the Gods to know you. Just because you get little money from carpentry, you change, and go into fishing, oh, man. I can tell you, by the time I write this; no other person has ever read of this, I'm not known in the world, but at least; I'm known to the Gods, I am doing what I was called for, you forget one thing, the person you admire; in a particular job, can't your job as you do it, but because of money, you admire them, the Gods can't do what you are doing, if they did, then they would have done it themselves, so feel proud, say; "The Gods can't do my skills, so I am proud." Can your wife wash as the woman who does washing as her job, no, for them, they have gained more skills in their duties; so, should you. When you do this; you will realize that living 90 years is much, and so the gods require.

(Ts14) LPT43 The "Thoughts File" controls cravings, it also controls cues but not much, Files like "Court" control the cues, because in the court, things are restricted, in "Court File" you are restricted to join WhatsApp groups, that is restriction to a cue, because joining WhatsApp groups can cause to many different cravings, so the Court File helps us in controlling cues by making our looking narrow, it makes our minds look at few things, not to consider a whole. Meanwhile, the craving is controlled by procrastination, or postponement, whenever we postpone something; its craving dies, so this is how the Thoughts File works, it kills our cravings, so to whatsoever you what to do badly, just write it down or in the Thoughts File; and say; "I will do it after two days", only that, by the two days; that craving would have lowered, but if a craving is of a cue that is always current, then the craving may not be lowered even if you postpone for a week, but the mind can live in all circumstances; so see that the cravings that change your identity are strongly rejected; what I am meaning is that the mind can destroy all cues, but to destroy some cues, the mind has change its personality, so you may find your self in a situation of choosing personality (PS), or a current cue (CC), if you want to preserve your personality (PS), You have to satisfy the current cue (CC), like, you may be a musician, and that is your Personality (MPS), a current cue (CC) of being on stage may come in; in this way, you either change your personality of being a musician to something else, or you satisfy the current cue that you must be on stage. If you change your personality (PS), the Current Cue (CC) goes, if you satisfy the Current Cue (CC), you preserve your Personality (PS), I support preserving your Personality (PS), because even though, how bad the Current Cue (CC), it can be satisfied, and know that in all fields; Current Cues are always there. Look at Jesus who satisfied the Current Cue (CC) of dying on the cross in order to preserve his Personality of a preacher (PPS). He was able to reject the Current Cue (CC) of dying on the cross, simply by changing His Personality, but no, he preserved his Personality (PS), and now, he is sitting with the Gods.

(Ts3) LPT44 The cravings come, but they soon are destroyed with time, when I have pimples in my face, I can catch in my face many times, some of which I don't realize, but during the time when there are no pimples in my face; I can't even move the hand to catch in my face, pimples being in my face is the cue, to press those pimples is the Craving, and the reward is always negative, I either get pain, or the pimples expand, but it seems that the reward makes no sense in this, I still press the pimple even after realizing that the end results are negative.

(sg2) LPT45 Oh pride; how you wear me like a robe and lead me into the depth temptations, oh pride; how you drive me into places I have never imagined, you are taking me into the deep pits, driving me with no stops.

(Ts1) LPT46 Don't you understand; happiness is begotten from pride. Your mind loves things that make it proud, things that make you proud; emotions are false (0).

(sg4) LPT47 Oh Teachings and understanding; how long will you always knock on my head, deep within me; you have set you castle, and your children have become a huge number within me; oh I said "How long must I do this, up to when should I continue;" but have those understood what I have written; have the wise of this world seen my visions and understand my perceptions, for my delight is in the Gods, because they give strength to continue doing what I am supposed to do; so I will never fall; nor my feet to ever stumble.

(Ts2) LPT48 The mind doesn't care whether the praises are genuine, or false (0), for it; it only cares about being praised, and on that praise; it wishes to add more praises on that; even if someone is telling lies; the mind only wants praise; and it can't differentiate whether the praises it has received are genuine or false lies,

(Ts1) LPT49 Since emotions come from within; it is hard to select which external factors cause them.

(Ts3) LPT50 To them it is true, mighty and bold in their minds; but consider the saying; "What they have done, they have not done it to harm you," they have done so to fulfill their desires, because of their beliefs, they have done so; because of the state of their minds, they have done so; and mostly because of praise; they have done so. Now you also in your perception, you consider it harmful; yet no harm is done to you; you falsely consider harm; where there is no harm; just stop considering harm, and you will not feel sad.

(Ts4) LPT51 Emotions are just chosen; not made, or created, not formed or developed, but chosen; You are the one to choose how to feel toward any situation; regardless of anything; you hold the total responsibility to choose how you feel. We know that the mind creates false things (0), Humans are no the only featured creatures ever made; there are many other wonderful creatures, if new features were to arise; those in control would get cravings to know what those creatures are; so, it is about who is in control of something; the one in control would get a more craving than other people, therefore; monitor what is in you control, and watch after that which belongs to you.

(sg2) LPT52 How long; will you withstand my glory; how long, oh you sons of men; will you withhold my praise within your mouths and release not my glory from your chests; you have deliberately withheld my praises, and you have said not the name of my God from your mouths, come on man, praise me.

(Ts3) LPT53 External factors don't influence or affect emotions; though it looks like they do; but they don't; Joy, happiness, sadness, and all the other emotions come from within. This is the saying, "having many possessions affects not your emotions." Your emotions are built from within, not from the outside, nothing will ever make you feel happy, if you can't make happiness for yourself now, nothing will give you joy, if you can't make for yourself joy now; it all starts from within; and not from the outside.

(Ts2) LPT54 The thing is that the things that make sense to you, makes no sense to them; to them it is senseless. Any person would contribute into something; but our perceptions are entirely different, totally different; and so, we can't have the same desire toward something.

(Ts1) LPT55 Poverty makes people think it's fate.

(Ts1) LPT56 Have I not spoken; yes, I have; that our perceptions are totally different, and what you like is a dislike to another person.

11/3/2025

(sg2) LPT57 Oh you man, reach 18:00 hours and you start to panic, man, were the two hours of the morning not enough for you; it reaches 19:00 hour, and you start panicking; as if you were asleep all the 19 hours, man; consider the first two hours of your day; on them; count nothing else worthwhile; for you will run after what never stops, and you will find yourself in the endless path, consider what you have written during the 19 hours of the day, the rest should be a supplication.

(Ts1) LPT58 The Gods have the features that enable them to be invisible and to live for a long time; but there is no assuredness that the Gods are eternal; that they live for eternity.

(sg2) LPT59 Oh man; how disappointed I am in you; going far beyond the clouds; and studying about the imaginations of the world, yet great philosophers you lack; wonderful thinkers; you did not have, yes, for philosophers came and passed by, like wind; they vanished, silent with abundance of wisdom and overflow of knowledge, does the world no see, does the wise not realize.

(sg2) LPT60 Why; or you rich and wealth man; why or you nations, and why; or you earth; why have you allowed man to die in vain, in shame and inability has man died and risen up not; behold; you have produced little money, and given not to the child of the earth; why, or you man, why, or you mighty man; even him with great understanding, saw not a ripe above, but you; man, why make few money and leave man to die in dishonor, (Ts1) LPT61 Then what is joy; joy is the realization that what you have done is enough, and that you need not to add on it.

(Ts5) LPT62 You want to test your emotions; consider this; why when you play the best music you love; why then, do you get bored, it is the music that becomes boring; because before the music started playing; you had a great craving for it, and you loved it so much, the same music has not changed; then why do you feel that is now boring; have you hated it; why is it boring; yet is the same music you loved before playing it; man; your emotions have changed, and so; you hate the music, so you don't love the music, because when your emotions change, you will hate the music, it is your emotions that determine whether you love the music or not; choose to have emotions that love the music, and you will love the music, choose the emotions that don't like the music, and you won't love the music; that is it, for example; emotions of wanting more, my cause you to hate the music, emotions that make you feel contented with what you have; will make your feel of music good, and you won't want to stop it; it is emotions that change, and they make us choose how we view the world.

(Dr2) LPT63 Who has heard, and who has understood; what is written, and what was brought forth; behold; as we did our exams, an examiner took photos of us, while we were copying ourselves; behold; he smiled at us, saying; “continue to copy yourselves, I have no problem with you.” How sure are we about this, how far have we gone with this.

(Ts3) LPT64 At every age, a creature has specific features; a young bird can't fly, because it sees the old birds also flying, if the young bird also tries to fly the old birds; it would fall down and die, not reaching the old age, it is a bird, but it is limited by its age, humans too, you want to have things that a person of age 31 should have, getting a car at age 19 is deadly; it is like a bird wanting to fly at 1 week, just because other humans have cars; don't consider what they have; consider they age, and conclude whether at the same age you also wish to have such or more, or less.

(sg4) LPT65 To do certain things; you must be at a certain age, as the world is very wise, no one is wiser than it, the world would support your age; that is when you do right things at right times, for example; a person to get married at age 14 is a wrong thing, therefore, the world blames you for this, regardless of your perception; the world considers ages. At your age; there is something you can do and people call you great, but even though you do something great above your age; no body would consider your greatness; that is why I cried for my praise; and it was nowhere to be found, I shouted out aloud; and nobody saw my greatness to praise my God, those who saw ignored me; and the ones who heard were indifferent.

(Ts2) LPT66 To do certain things, let us also first consider the praise in those things; then someone might say; then what should I do; do that which nature blames you not for doing, that which is blameless before nature.

(sg2) LPT67 What is my life; that I may die over through a night; what is indeed my presence, that through a dark; I am no more; that I perish and become no more; that my future is merely empty, and that the past is what I have left; behold; I have worked; and in great distress have I moved.

LPT68 And when He comes to see me; he cries not, what I call tears; to him is the endless river of happiness, that even at my death; he will come, sinners will surround my tomb; like of a relative.

(Vi7) LPT69 Have I not written, on spirit, in all creatures, different perceptions, cues, and cravings, cause the spirit to seem many, but one spirit, when you see a person; they are going to beat because of stealing; say; "Me and that person are not different; we all have one spirit; it's our CCP that changes, and cause everyone to do what they do," don't call anyone stupid or a fool, before you call any person stupid; first say; "Leon is the stupidest person ever lived, now here is another," I am the most fool among the sons of men; no one is stupid, and no one is wise, if a person is stupid today; then what will you say when they are wise tomorrow; will you then call them wise; no, you are wrong in all the ways and in what you are saying about someone; then what should be said; if there is no wise and no fool, no rich, no poor, no small, no big, no tall, no short, no black, no white, no female, no male, no child, no adult; that now; the furious man has risen up, he has risen to destroy Leon, and all his teachings, behold; the teachings will be scattered, and collecting all of them; will be a heavy duty; men shall rise among you; with the name "collectors", to collect all the Files of Leon and assemble them; the enemies shall fight the Teachings; and the murder of the Collectors will be heard throughout the lands.

(Ts2) LPT70 Death is simple; just sleep and don't wake up; that's death, it is not something to be afraid of, like sleeping; are you afraid of sleeping, no; so, then that is how also death is like, it is sleeping and not getting up forever.

(Ts4) LPT71 Like how the earth dies, so people do; the earth after 365 days; it dies; then a new earth is born in January, the same with humans, therefore; fear not death; and be shaken not because of it; but love it like how you may love sleeping. Every person is like Bill Gates, every person is like you; if humans unite; they could chase away the Gods; something that makes a creature unproductive; is its vulnerability to death; or when will you stop saying that the Gods control human life; that they determine what each person does; and that they control whether a person should die or no, if these were true; I would have died 6 years back;

LPT72 For a man according to what he has written; is the best before his eyes; putting him to the level of the Gods and seeing the earth in his eyes.

(Ts7) LPT73 Who among you can listen to a song from morning to night, from sunset to sunrise; by this you know that your emotions change every time; for the song doesn't change, it is your emotions that change, and when they change, your mood towards the song changes, for you see, but you don't see, if humans didn't have eyes, how would life be; the same; there are animals with no eyes, but they live, so humans would also live, you know this; that humans are animals, but what makes them special; is their ability to copy from the other animals and make themselves featureful and thus have more abilities; humans can fly like angels, without using airplanes, humans can live more than the years they live; to up to 1000 years, if it is written that Adam lived for more than 1000 years and above, so humans here lost the feature, and as a result; their ability of living for that long was gone; maybe some other animals copied this feature, and added it to their own features; I fear not to say that the Gods are also animals; for it is you who gave them that name, if we humans are animals, then whatever is on earth is an animal, or let us call them creatures; most of my teachings are from f the inside, the inside and the outside, which is great, if you were to compare me with the greatest physicists, who would be great, am I not greater than they; there is a thing there; is that they all died,

11/10/2025

(Ts10) LPT74 If you can't support your perception; keep quiet and leave it to the Gods, for it is better to be ruled than to be deceived. Keep your mouth shut before the wicked, don't speak anything; for all their alternatives are a false. You support your Perception, in a degree of 90%, but the other person also supports their perception 90%, so the intensity is the same; it is like negative and positive against each other; positive is 100%, but also negative is 100%, so positivity or negativity makes no sense, what stands firm; wins, it matters not whether what you are is positive or negative; the intensity matters; if positive decreases just 1%, negative wins; it would be 99%:100%, but how does negative thinks; to negative; he is 100% true, what is negative in your eyes, is positive in the eyes of another person; yet you all have one soul; so it can also be positive in your eyes; have you not seen; or heard or experienced; what is negative today; may be positive tomorrow; then what will you say tomorrow; that "oh this situation is good", yet yesterday it was bad; I have never seen the world changing to be fair; I have not seen the earth, considering nitrogen good for life, and mostly, I have not seen the sun changing color; for a man says, "the sun is bad", another says; "the sun is good", yet the sun has not changed, whatever is said is false, because it comes from the mind; whatever is done is true, because it comes from the body. For if the Gods created the world; they didn't create it with words, but their can be no creation for the creator; the earth created the Gods; for what is invisible; humans call Gods, but they aren't Gods, they are creatures;

(Ts1) LPT75 You will find out that in times when you feel stressed up; it is the times when all your wishes are fulfilled.

(Ts1) LPT76 If you are worried in a situation; it is hard to write anything about it.

(Ts9) LPT77 At the times when we want more, we realize less that we have whatever we needed several months or years back, when you feel worried about your condition; don't you see that whatever you wanted is right before you; this is dissatisfaction, discontentedness, and ignorance of the maximum level; it is not good to be ignorant up to this level; have I not told you; that in some situations; it is good to die than to do something; it is better for the sun to die than to delay in it's time of coming out, that is why it has never given a miss or a skip in its duties. Time, and the earth rewards, in otherwards; the earth rewards with time; at one point on this same earth; you couldn't see; at one point; on this same earth; you didn't hear; you had totally nothing; but with time; you started seeing, effortlessly; what I mean with effortlessly is that you did nothing for you to be able to see, then on this same earth; you couldn't walk; with time; you effortlessly walked, you didn't walk by self, it was time that made you able to walk; that same time caused you to start eating; the same time; caused you to start learning, speaking and so on; it means everything you have belongs to time; on October 1st, 2025; Leon did not have any hosted website on the internet; on October 23, 2025; the same Leon had his first website hosted and it was globally live on the internet in every part of the world; Leon did not change; what changed was the Time, by this Leon said; "truly I say to you; whatever you want, you already have it." The Leon of the October 1st 2025; did not have a live hosted website, but the Leon of the October 23rd 2025, had the live hosted website, these are not two different people, it is one person; but the time makes them to be different, truly I say; "Every day a person is different", this points at patience.

(Ts4) LPT78 Silence is the most medicine; but it is also a drug, if a message is not for you, it is like death; it is true that every day; you are completely a different person; this is why you can't have the same measures every day, your BVM is different, the Fruits are different, the Gifts, and all the other measures are different, this why; I Leon, I will give to my name a date of every day, I will maintain the name Leon; then; the other name will be the date of the day; the name will be like this; Leon November 11, 2025, that is my name today; but tomorrow it will change to be; Leon November 12, 2025, this shows that Leon changes every day, he is not the same; but a different person.

(Ts1) LPT79 People should also consider sleep as death; that whenever you sleep; it is like you have died, the mind of a business man is far different from the mind of one who doesn't involve in business.

(Ts2) LPT80 When you throw to balls down at the same time; you won't know which ball makes the noise, in the same way; when you start two initiatives at the same time; you may not know which activity is beneficial. Know that someone is living in the life you want to live in, but they don't like it;

(Ts2) LPT81 When you want to change a situation; the old situation looks like it was simple and good; yet it wasn't. for if you got the thought of changing your situation; it means even the situation you were in wasn't good.

LPT82 I am tired of living life again and again; the same things always happen; nothing is new here. We surrender to what we can't do, we give up to what is difficult for us to do.

(Ts1) LPT83 For if you are not happy now; neither would you be; any time; for after the time; the past seems to have been good; damn lies; it wasn't good at all,

(Ts9) LPT84 How do you think life would be; if a small child wakes up grown; you live with people because you are human; if one day comes and you an animal; those same people would eat you or kill you; so your life is meaningless; but as we know; that we all have one spirit; like all other creatures; ow you are to react is how other creatures react; oh; men of wisdom; and the ceased of understanding; those who were greater than me; have perished; I mean; that they died; and all their understanding ceased; even me; I will die; even I; will die; one day; or nothing is changing; or the world is not moving; or there is no time; oh I their in my yesterday; but oh you rich men; you have refused to take the initiatives to make human lives eternal; you have not started on the path to make human eternal, do test on much people as you can; and if they die; it's ok; let them die; but save the next generations; let death of humans be stopped before 2100, maybe the wise wouldn't have died; and the princes would have lived for eternity; but; oh you; rich men; have not saved life; what I am saying is that save the mind; let the body die and perish; preserve the mind; and place it into another body; or clone; our bodies are not capable to live for eternity; because we don't have the feature to enable that ability; I told you that for a human to live for eternity; they must first become like the earth; having the feature like those of the earth; but we do have one spirit; together with the earth and all the universe; everything alive; has the same spirit like yours; but the difference is from the external, possessions, and others; but with the same spirit; so should I say that that spirit makes you think that you work with your mind; for of the spirit is the controller; and not the mind; then; a person would die let us say I have my spirit in me; what does it do; is it the one that thinks;

(Ts3) LPT85 Great wisdom and philosophy; is the one that makes you think; "There is no God", but this is what I say, "There is God, the God of Israel". Whatever you want; you already have it; your today is not having it; but you have it; for example; Leon November 17, 2025; doesn't have an android app; but Leon December 17, 2025; has an android app; Leon already has the app; Leon November 17, 2025; doesn't have money; a poor man; but Leon September 21, 2034; has money; a rich man;

(Ts2) LPT86 Whenever you are talking with someone; be like you are talking to yourself; knowing that; the same spirit you both have; I have always wanted to do things my way; but it has always seemed like something drives what I do; that nature controls me;

(Ts3) LPT87 Being free is being free from man power; and being free from man power; is being free from money; if you are after money; the more you are under man dominance; and that is not being free; for some works; you should be free; being a person of great wisdom is not an easy thing; for this; you have to be free,

(Ts4) LPT88 Do you know; what I have done; oh you sons of men; why I am not like any of you; or like one among you; for if you check in the court; I have put on myself judgements; I have set laws; like one setting out laws toward the one he loves not; like it hasn't been me setting out laws for myself; like a stranger setting out laws on which I must base my life; then you say; oh Leon; how wise you are; and how understanding you understand things;

11/22/2025

(Ts9) LPT89 Has wisdom stopped; oh; has understanding seen its cease; no; in life I understand; and in wisdom; I walk; don't you want people to be like you; and don't wish that people may like your way of life; behold; everyone lives their own life; and nature instructs them all; don't tamper nature to disrupt it's arrangement; for it has organized since the beginning. Now what do you want to hear; "that which words explain the earth; that which sentence shows the earth"; ok; I will summarize it for you; this is just a summary; but the earth and life can't be fully explained in the words; rather; life is shown; and explained in the Thirteen Files of Leon (TFL), here is the sum of the earth; and it's life; "There is nothing good or bad; it is up to you perception". From those words; comes forth life; and all the earth.

(Ts1) LPT90 Whatever I have gained; I must keep.

(Ts7) LPT91, I doubt; if God created man; and he gave him the animals to live with; but God first created the garden; before he created man; and all the animals; he first created what man would feed on; and all that he needed; the he placed man in already finished things. God created man; and he gave him no house, nowhere to sleep; but only garden; isn't it true that humans are to live in gardens like animals; to live in forests like other animals; From what we have seen; humans every time they live; they create new things; human will reach a point of creating their fellow humans; yes; humans will reach a time when they don't die; there will be no death anymore.

(Ts2) LPT92 If you get a woman; she is your possession; and women; if you get a man; he is your possession.

(Ts3) LPT93 Wisdom, knowledge, understanding, holy spirit. Love, and all other fruits and gifts; are your possessions. What about all my files, "The Thirteen Files of Leon (TFL); They are also your possessions; because they contribute to all this knowledge; and all the fruits.

(Ts8) LPT94 If your parents are stupid; you are also stupid; the one who feeds you; has control over your entire life. I feel not good now; for I see that I am under the dominion of my parents; those who feed me are above my head; like gods; and one thing I hate is to be under someone else's dominance; I am tired of living under the same life over and over again; under the same emotions; just like all people; the similarity in emotions; makes things alike; but life is not going to suddenly change like in a movie; then you should say to yourself; "in five, ten, or twenty years from now; I don't wish my life to be like this", then take the possible initiatives that would change your life; such initiatives are time waiting; and thus; humans should be patient; and as they continue to trust in the Gods.

LPT95 When God created a human; he created him with the Daily Schedule; the Court; Days; Possessions; and that was all.

(Ts1) LPT96 I said; have I lived all my life; have I lived the life of earth; for death is on my door; and fall is among my habitations. Now; what do I wait for; death.

(Ts3) LPT97 The mind is the spirit from God; you can't know what is in my mind; unless I speak; so; from what I have written; you will indeed know; that the Gods had blessed my spirit, at sometimes you find yourself without problems; no challenges; and all you got to do is to think; then what you think should be brought forth from the court; how many times do you think of killing someone; because you are aware that after you kill someone; you are going into prison; so even if that thought comes; you simply ignore it.

(Ts1) LPT98 Adam was not the first man on earth; Adam was the first writer.

(Ts2) LPT99 The teachings did not stop; or see an end; it is that Leon stopped looking for more; when he got what he wanted; Leon didn't fully describe God or life; because he ceased looking and searching for God and Life after he got what he wanted.

(Ts5) LPT100 What God created doesn't eat; what eats; is what your parents created; so it is true that your parents created you; they created your body, then; what God created is inside; that which is in every; other creature; but then, it makes no sense in this world; this world is a world of humans; a world of bodies; the spirit does not eat; it's the physical body that eats; so it is the creature of something to feed something; if God created the spirit; he can only feed the spirit; your parents created your body; so they must feed your body. God can't feed your body; He can't take care of your body; because He has never created the body; he created the spirit; that is why you are wise; but you don't have money; money can't come from God; money comes from your parents who created the body, it is wrong to think that you will get money from God; He has never created your body, let those who created the body take care of it, for you are already wise; so you are in a good relationship with God; but with your parents; the relationship isn't good; therefore; your body is to suffer. Let those who created the body take care of the body; and let Him who created the spirit take care of the spirit.

(Ts6) LPT101 You love me with your body; but with your mind; you love me not; when I talk of the mind; I talk of the spirit; you only love my body; but you don't love my mind (spirit); if I turned into an insect today; you would have no love for me; but the true thing is that I am the same spirit; but because my body has changed; now human bodies hate me; for you know that all creatures have one spirit; the same spirit; even the snake; but people don't like the other creatures (animals); because of their bodies; but those creatures have the same spirit like humans; it's just the features that make them change; if people really loved each other; they would have loved them in spirit; what you love in spirit; you can't hate; but humans love the bodies; this is why; when you fall mad; few people would really remain loving you; but it's you; the same person; just the body changes; and people hate you; so; people don't love spirits; they love bodies; imagine if one day you wake up; when you body is the body of a goat; truly; even your mother would hate you; every human person would hate you; but it's you; the same spirit; but if people hate your body; then; you are of no use to them.

(Ts1) LPT102 Is there anyone to give me praise; is there anyone to consider my wisdom; my understanding; and my knowledge; now if anyone wants to be wise; they should read the Leon's Teachings.

(Ts3) LPT103 Parents should be your first Gods; anyone who takes care of you; you should consider them as your Gods; ok; let them be Gods of your body; for your parents created your body; but they did not create your soul; you can't reward what you never created; if the Gods created the spirit; that means everything in the spirit; is rewarded by the Gods; therefore; if you lack anything in your spirit; ask the Gods; and if you lack anything on your body;

ask your parents; who are your God;

11/28/2025

(sg) LPT104 I feel like I want to die; I feel I want to end my life; I feel like I want to kill myself. I want to kill myself and I am no more.

(Ts46) LPT105 Then you will feel like killing yourself; but the truth you should know is that everyone alive has experienced this same situation; everyone on earth; the great old men have passed through this same feeling; the dead legends too; have been in this same situation; the situation is to every creature; no person alive is not feeling this; yet all of them are alive; being over too desireless can cause loss of interest in life; and feeling like you want to kill yourself; there are many cues that may cause this; and the craving might come; the next step should be to make death unsatisfying; because the cues are there; the craving is there because it has not yet seen the satisfactory; the craving is unaware whether the satisfactory is satisfying or unsatisfying; if the satisfactory is satisfying; then you will continue to think killing yourself then and then; if the satisfactory is unsatisfying; then you will never think of killing yourself again; then how to make the satisfactory satisfying or unsatisfying; think of any act that you wouldn't want to do "LPT41 The mind only wants where it benefits from, without a cue, a craving and a reward, the mind won't work." So, we know that without a cue, a craving, and a reward, the mind; won't work; if you think killing yourself; it means that in the act of killing yourself; the CCR is present; then the only thing to do; is to breakdown and terminate the CCR; how can this be done; in the CCR; the cue is that thing that causes you to feel wanting to kill yourself; the craving; is that there is satisfaction if you kill yourself, the reward; is bad; it is that you will die; but remember; your mind doesn't care about your reward in any action; as long as the Cue, and craving are present; you will feel wanting to kill yourself; the cues here can easily be broken down; and this is what all people do; because everyone alive; has ever felt like killing themselves; the reason why they are still alive; is because they take the easy part of breaking the cues; the cues that cause them wanting to kill themselves; of course the strategy works; well; because it is the same strategy I myself have been using throughout all the years; it is not the first time to think of killing myself; but one thing I know for sure; that this is the last time; why the last time; because I am not going to break cues like other people; this time; I am breaking the craving; why break the craving; because as long as you are still in this life; cues can't be avoided; the can't be terminated; because your mind is the greatest source of cues; the craving in killing yourself comes after a feeling of satisfaction; you feel that it is better for you to kill yourself; then turn it around; you feel that it is worst to kill yourself; the mind can't jump from best to worst; hear God speaking; you who have never heard His voice". The mind in its state; can't jump from best to worst; from best to better; to good; to bad; to worse; and finally to worst; for a mind to move from best to better; it requires it 600 years; from better to good; more 600 years; it means; for the mind to move from best to worst; it requires it 3000 years; which I am not to live; as long as the craving is terminated; even if cues are obviously before your eyes; you won't be moved; you don't need to kill yourself; you just need to kill the cravings of killing yourself; once these cravings are killed; you will live for eternity; that death is the worst, not the best, the worst; and the most difficult to do; make death difficult; you shouldn't make it too simple; that just buying a rope or taking pills; make it further difficult; that for me to kill myself; I must first kill another person; because you want to kill yourself; not because you want to do it; but because it is easy to do it; so tie it to something difficult; that; for me to kill myself; I must first kill another person; or I must first get a million dollars; or I must first become a president; this is it; by this; you are making death difficult; and once an act is made difficult; it will never be repeated. But don't tie possible to impossible; possible is tied to difficult; not to impossible; you can say; for me to kill myself; I must first write 100,000 words; for me to kill myself; I must first be raised at my place of work; for me to kill myself; I must first have another child, for me to kill myself; I must first buy a new car, shoe, house, laptop, smartphone, trending clothes, for me to kill myself; I must first make 25% of profits in my business, for me to kill myself; I must first the business idea in my mind, for me to kill myself; I must first save 100, 1000, 10,000, 100,000, 1 million, 10 million, 100 million, 1 billion; dollars, the step is to make killing yourself difficult but not impossible; the mind can ignore the impossible; but it can't give up on the difficult;

(Ts2) LPT106 Whom should I give my life; to whom; shall my life be given; who is totally pure and guiding; to the Court; yes; to the "Court" I will give my life.

(Ts6) LPT107 People tell lies because they want to get things they are not capable of getting; and this is evil; because it is against the laws of nature; anything against nature is bad; People sweat and do evil now and then; just because they are going against nature. Producing is not bad; but producing a child and wanting that child to walk at that exact time is bad; it is against nature.

(Ts1) LPT108 In some eyes you are low; and in other eyes you are high.

(Ts8) LPT109 Success comes to those in its path; the path is not an easy path; the path of success; whenever you start a good thing; there is no failure; only success; because even failing is success. Success is a man who planted a lot of apples; and he was the only person with those apples in the all earth; this man had a straight long road; that passed through the all earth; this man could walk through his road; he couldn't branch into other roads; to every person; that this man found in his road; to them; he gave apples; this man could find a person once in a year; and to every person he found in his way; he gave them apples.

(Ts2) LPT110 What pleases the mind; does not please the body; this is because; what pleases the mind is always false; and the body is pleased with real things.

(Ts6) LPT111 What is big; is the one that eats; according to the law of nature; what is big; is the one that eats and dominants; humans are dominant because they are many; and perhaps; humans have the ability of dominance; since they have hand and legs; these things enable them to be dominant over other creatures; but the mind is the same; the spirit is the same in all creatures; they are the features that make the difference.

(Ts2) LPT112 Thinking is the perception of the mind; we are always living in the past or the future. Perfect mind; some people can live in the present; whereas others

(Ts4) LPT113 The Court is the file that is like a parent to the human; humans are humans after having the features; gods are gods after being invisible; Leons are Leons after following the files of Leon. If spirits go in heaven after death; how will you live; how ill you behave without following the Thirteen Files of Leon; without having the writings of Leon; how will your life be;

(sg10) LPT114 The files of Leon are blameless; great blessings belong to those who follow them; as a parent; they show and guide you in which way to go; indeed; the thirteen files; are better than parents; they are better than good teachers; they are better than great masters; Look at the Court; very blameless and kind; the Daily Schedule; full of life and moral driving; the Thoughts; how you guide me; and how you have preserved my reputation; Goals; you make develop new things; you make me come up with now ideas; Accounts; you make my funds manageable; and my finances are ever before my mind; Personal Duties; how you have made my looking good; and my habitations great, Accounts Scale of Preferences; how I meditate of you; in the times of wellbeing; and how I imagine of your wonderful deeds.

(sg2) LPT115 Thoughts; how you make my days wonderful; behold; when I sin; when I do a sudden sin; you quickly come to my rescue; how I love you; and think about you all day long.

LPT116 Knowing this first; a movie contains 1,000,000 books; one million books; yes; if you are a great philosopher or seer; deny this; that a movie itself is great than heaven, no knowledge; or little understanding;

12/11/2025

(Ts16) LPT 1:17 You are being fair to your body; do you think it is fair with you; for what is your body; an object where your spirit lives. Your spirit can be put in a cockroach, rat, hen, dog, laptop, or anything, the spirit does not care where it is; dead people have more joy than live people; because as long as you are alive; you are limited by your abilities. Make yourselves familiar with dreaming; you might die; and don't dream. If so; make dreaming a daily routine. When you die; you can dream; it is bad to dream to the world of flesh; therefore; spirits after they die; they go into a different world, then; this should be the false world; and the lives world should be the real world; in the lives world you can't feel pain, hungry, anger, sexual desires; every feeling and emotion you are feeling; you can only feel it in the bodies world; because it is the body with features to be abilitious; in the body; there s a place for anger, hungry, pain, sexual desires, hatred, and all that with features on the body, some other creatures can't feel hatred, anger, hungry, or sexual desires; these things are on the human body; and they cause abilitioiu; this is how drugs work; they destroy the features on a body; they destroy the feature of pain, anger, hungry, sexual desires and more. Now; the live's world can't think; it has no features to think; and without features; the ability can't work. Oh; cry, earth; there is no heaven; there is no life after death; once you die; you are gone. I have gone into the lives world and I have seen; the person in the lives world has no features to think; it is the body now; that thinks of him; the body thinks for him; after death; it is done; after you die; you are gone.

(Ts4) LPT 1:18 Does understanding want to stop; or knowledge to cease; behold; I gave birth to a spirit; on December 12, 2025; I produced a spirit; that is always with me; he is called "Leon", my own name; but he is ignorant in most things; he cant hear; think; see; or feel; what he is good about is to remember; on that; he is somehow of importance;

(Ts3) LPT 1:19 Now hear; or you sons of men; and daughters of the world; life is once; like how a dog dies; humans the same; well; it might be true; that there are some features you haven't tested; that you haven't tested some abilities of your mind.

(Ts6) LPT 1:20 Contentedness comes after realizing that your current situation is better than the situation you want to be in; through this only; can you be satisfied; through this only; can the human mind be satisfied; because the human mind can't crave for a worse situation; it rather pauses everything; and it says at stop; than to drive itself in an unpleasant situation.

12/16/2025

(Ts4) LPT 1:21 For you; how do you think do the gods live; the Gods live with the spirit; the have the feature that makes them invisible; then; most creatures on earth produce; that means also gods produce;

12/17/2025

(Ts4) LPT 1:22 Then I saw that I had whatever a man can think about; whatever a man may want; I had lived life all of it; and it was true that I understood everything; then; I thought to myself; that everything was done; and there was nothing more to learn in the world.

(Ts8) LPT 1:23 Prayer and Fasting are not governed by the laws of nature; they are not normal. And the reason is that when you pray and fast; you acknowledge that thing above nature; and nature does not want to be passed; it is the supreme; since we know that God is the creator of nature; we pray and fast for God to change nature; now; nature becomes very angry; with our praying and fasting; then it rechanges its laws and do the impossible that it wasn't supposed to do; and by this; we praise God for what he has done for us; it was nature that did so.

(Ts22) LPT 1:24 What could you do; when you knew that had the ultimate; that you had the last thing; imagine if you were running in a race and at the end point; you had to reach to a red flag; now; as you are running with other competitors; you realize that you already have the red flag in your pocket; what could you do? Would you stop running and pull out the red flag and show it; this is the right thing that I would do; but it is cheating; I would have cheated; the right thing would be for me to run with the red flag in my pocket and reach to the finishing point; at the finishing point; I would win easily because I would just pull out the red flag; and I would have won; Easily and planned, and this is me; think all the way; all the people who lived before you; how many won without finishing the race; how many philosophers were really known as philosophers when they did not finish the race; how many writers were known as writers without finishing the race;

how many musician, prophets, engineers were known without finishing the race; here; life is the race; and it is runnable; look at people with disabilities who have managed to live out life and survive; poor people who have lived for years and years; here; life is the race; and everyone can run this race; now Leon found Himself having what people are running for; and Leon supposed to stop running the race; this is not true.

(Ts2) LPT 1:25 I am trying very hard to live life as I can; but it seems scaring; I already know what

(Ts6) LPT 1:26 There are two words; intentionally or unintentionally; you might do something intentionally; then you are wise; when you do that same thing unintentionally; then you are a fool; the action has not changed; the will is what has changed; and you are either wise or a fool; when you die for the church intentionally; you are wise; when you die for the church unintentionally; you are a fool;

12/20/2025

(Ts8) LPT 1:27 Features cause abilities; a shirt is a feature; and it may make you not feel cold; it is a fool to think that they can have an ability without the features; when you wear gloves; you gain the ability of writing fast on a keyboard; for someone without gloves; it is senseless to think that you can write as fast as someone with gloves; for the spirit of that person doesn't consider the features; for it thinks that it may have an ability in the absence of a feature; a person without a mouth; it is unsafe for that person to think that they can talk; talking is the ability; and mouth is the feature; without the feature; there is no ability; money is a feature; when you have it; you also have abilities; money is a feature; this feature gives the ability to get everything you want, to get everything.

(Ts4) LPT 1:28 Leon; how much is your understanding; when I went back into my writings; into what I written sometimes back; I see that now I am advanced; I am super wise with much understanding; Thank you God; indeed; all writings were breathed from God's mouth; and I must collect the Teachings of my God; The LORD.

12/23/2025

(Ts7) LPT 1:29 The most important thing to do is to be humble; and trust God; I have seen this; that our lives are driven by desires; yet the spirit remains unsatisfied; and unsatisfied; in everything that you do; know that you are not going to get satisfied; no matter what; it is all unsatisfying; for humans aim at praise; which is of evil; yet man should be given honor; from God.

12/25/2025

LPT 1:30 The earth is just unpleasing to the Gods; to live on it; imagine; would you like be a cockroach that lives in the toilet; if not; also the Gods find it not pleasing to live on earth; it is like living in a toilet to them.

12/26/2025

(Ts1) LPT 1:31 Inward perception is greater than external perception.

12/27/2025

LPT 1:32 God is not there; but it is your own benefit that you believe in God. For I have written about great wisdom and understanding; so this is true; the humble you are; the greatest you are,

LPT 1:33 An harmed person is one who is trying to be different from the society; the Law of nature stays; one who differs from the society is a bad man. If in your home; they are drug takers; you are bad if you don't take drugs.

LPT 1:34 It is less likely that the intensity of a thought would stay the same after a certain time.

LPT 1:35 If you have ever killed; an animal; or any insect; you can as well kill a human; all creatures have one spirit; and it is that one spirit that does everything; what is in your body; is what is in a cow; what is in your body; is what is in God; but there are steps; the spirit in child can't to somethings; that the spirit in an adult can do; yet it is one spirit in all; but it has levels; every creature with its own level; and these levels are affected by the features available; what the human can do; a hen can't do; yet they have one spirit; but different levels; caused by different features.

LPT 1:36 Then; remain alive and strong I what you do; being determined to use the spirit in all things to reach to the level that you like to be on; then; I saw that humans should do only one thing; and that is to think and memorize the BVM; because honor and glory comes from God; not from praise or what people do; therefore; knowing that the most humble is the most greatest; then; nothing comes outside the Spirit; also use the Spirit to help you boost you level; ask the Spirit everything you want; and the Spirit will help you.

(Ts10) LPT 1:37 You will be very disappointed; with other people's perceptions; you will find out that they are totally different from what you thought it was. But all in all; be exactly honest as you can to speak what is in your thoughts, speak it exactly as it is; because if it has done no harm to you; it can neither do harm to them; they might see it as harm; but it is not harm; if it does not do harm to you; it can't do harm to them; they just perceive it as harm; yet it is not; so tell them the source roots of your thoughts; so that they might also see that it is not harm.

(Ts1) LPT 1:38 Fifteen minutes of activity are enough a day.

(Ts2) LPT 1:39 You will find a time when you have to rely on the perceptions of the people around you; for some

(Ts4) LPT 1:40 A wiseman needs only death to suggest to him; but different perceptions; every one gives suggestions according to their perceptions. Then what can a man do, for himself; nothing; only to live; and talk only what is in his mind.

(Ts2) LPT 1:41 Then I saw; that every person; does not do what they want; but; do this; believe in God.

(Ts2) LPT 1:42 A child with devices will not study; because he will have finished studying.

(Ts2) LPT 1:43 In Uganda; a child to study with devices was not possible on date (December 28, 2025).

(Ts4) LPT 1:44 The bird that was flying to the west; has suddenly turned; and now it is flying to the East. That is how people are; in this scenario; The East can be right; also the West can be right, people suddenly change their perceptions.

(Ts6) LPT 1:45 Diseases; they are also creatures with the same spirit as you have; therefore; when the disease attacks you; it is looking for its way of surviving; like all creatures are; disease die as all creatures die; but since diseases are small; you can't kill them like killing other big creatures, you kill them with the part they are on.

(Ts3) LPT 1:46 You don't care about your yourself; the spirit in you does not care about your body; this is why you don't love other people.

12/29/2025

(Ts2) LPT 1:47 Every creature on earth looks for its way of surviving; diseases are not different; they also are looking for a way of surviving.

1/2/2026

(Ts3) LPT148 This is how the human mind is always thinking; sons having sex with their mothers; fathers having sex with their little young daughters;

1/3/2026

(Ts3) LPT149 They are making the world a better place, everyone; in everything they do; they are making the world a better place; the world is driven by nature; not by a single mind.

(Ts5) LPT150 Just think that you need that disease; then; the disease will be of no harm to you. Diseases or sickness are also creatures; they need to live; just think that you need it; like how you always spend time with thoughts; can't you bare a sickness or disease.

(Ts15) LPT151 I looked at the world; and everything that was done in the world; I saw that I understood everything; now; if it happens that someone rises among you; and they tell you that they understand all things; believe them; for a person can understand all things. Then I saw that the world is good just the way it is; If the wise has spoken about this; how much more should the fool believe it, with understanding; I understand all things; but if I lack wisdom; that understanding is useless; wisdom; prevents you from getting it harm; yet understanding can make you know the cause of the hurt; understanding can't survive without wisdom; it is with wisdom; that a man gains understanding. Wisdom makes you do what you must do to have understanding; there are some things that if you don't do them; you can't be wise; you can't have understanding, understanding comes from writing, only; but understanding can't write; it is wisdom to write.

(Ts8) LPT 1:52 Now; a person lives the life that they decided sometime back; you cannot live your life today, what you are right now; is what you lived sometimes or some years back or months; therefore; let no one stand out and say; see; I am going to change my life; I am going to stop living in sin and do only righteous; this is wrong; your life can't be lived the same day you decide to live it; if you want a good life; think of it now; but live it after one year or nine month.

(Ts9) LPT 1:53 Now regarding wisdom, knowledge and understanding; it is very much better that a person has understanding; but it is far best that a person lives wisdom; you cannot have wisdom; you must live wisdom; wisdom is the spirit itself; so as long as every person has a spirit; they can live wisdom; that is why after gaining knowledge; a person can live whatever they want to live; because wisdom already lives in them; wisdom is in every person; and in every creature; it is the creature to decide to start living it.

(Ts5) LPT 1:54 Therefore; every creature can become whatever they wish to become; because wisdom already lives in all creatures. Then toward understanding; it can only come after gaining the features for understanding; without features; there is no ability; knowledge is a feature.

(Ts11) LPT 1:55 It is about priorities; with money; and time; and desire; and doing, with everything that you do; it depends on your priorities toward that thing; don't say; I can do this with my money; no; you may fall sick; but sickness may not be of great priority for you to use your money; what are your priorities; is paying tithe your priority; if it is not; you will use that money to do other things; is understanding your priority; if not; you will consider writing a worth thing to do each day; is fasting your priority; if not; you will not fast in a month, when you know your priorities; you know what to do; but you should also know; that everything is useless;

(Ts20) LPT 1:56 The fooliest man is one who fears death, when you fear death; you are ignorant and a man of no understanding or having no knowledge; for a person dies everyday; that I why it is hard for you to enter the life of another person; for foolish, but you may want to enter the life of a person with money; because money is a feature; and it does all activities that a human wants. The rest is nothing to life; as long as money is there; the human life wants nothing more, you don't want to die; you are just tied of the body in which your spirit is in; knowledge moves fast in the body; I can hear it walking in the mind; there will be a time when you will want to kill yourself; and if you kill yourself; don't be afraid; it is a good thing, all those who say that killing your self is a bad thing; are fools; they are all fools; and those who fear death are fools; being many does not make you wise; in fact; being many is the real foolishness; if 3 wise men are put in a room; those people are 0.700 foolish, but if 1000 fools are put in a room; they are 1.000 foolish, being many is foolish; and it is the beginning of foolishness; many people are fools; indeed fools fear death.

(Ts51) LPT 1:57 A word is king; overall; but we all speak; imagine if one person could speak; that person would have been king overall; a word is more than the body; a word is greater than a person, a word is better than all things. But people should die sometimes; yes people should die; but not sleeping; people should follow the Daily Schedule; and all the other files; for in this; I have been like Moses, showing how people can live life; and it all works, but if one goes from the files; those people will stumble and fall; and perish in their iniquity; and all their wrong doing. Yes; the thirteen files are blameless; and they are holy before God and for the lives of all humans, but this is said; You will want doing everything and anything; but follow the Daily schedule, I will not allow people who don't follow the Daily Schedule into my Heaven; they will not enter Heaven; I will lock them on the door; they will never even see the heaven, at that time; we won't need slaves; we would have made them slaves; we will have plenty of wives; we would have made them our wives; I am talking too much about heaven; let me keep quiet; lest you know how the Heaven will feel like, it will be so good; trust me, but be of much understanding; when I die; someone might say that they are speaking my visions; if that happens; they are speaking my visions from my written word; not from my spirit; because a spirit has no mouth to speak; nor eyes to see whom it is speaking with. So; many people will gain understanding from my writings; much much understanding; that even me myself; I did not reach to; but not because I wasn't able to reach to that understanding, I just didn't want to reach there; since I understood all things, I is like this, a man stands in front of an apple tree; this man is very tall to reach to the top of the tree; and get apples from there; the other men; are short; they can only reach to apples by using a stick, so; these short men have to go and search for sticks to come and get the apples; but as for me; I don't need to look for stick to get the apples; because I understand all things; no question is hard for me to answer; and the answer I give; no one can accept it; yet no one can answer it; it is God Himself answering, do you want to argue with God, I am God; then you will say; this is the most stupidest man ever since the world began, yet; my answer is very true; ok; this is the reason why I am God; the spirit is me; and you are the spirit; therefore; everyone is God; you are also God; the little child is a mighty God, that little child is God; Don't you understand you fools; you are much stupid; if you don't understand this; I have tried to break it down for you; but still you don't understand; since I don't have much time; I will leave the fools on the way; let me go with the wise; Leon; come and we go;

so; The Spirit created all things; and The Spirit is in all things;
what if; the spirit is not in all things; what if it just created all things and it made them automatic; so that these creatures can do everything they do; but when they are automatic;

1/9/2026

(Ts1) LPT 1:58 I have written here in the Daily Sschedule.

(Ts21 LPT 1:59 I decide that when I masturbate; I will turn off electricity from my room; and I would enter fasting at that same time; until next day; at that same time. If I had followed the Thoughts file; and if I had learned from the Courts File; I wouldn't have done such an activity; I abandoned my files; which are totally free from deceit; and iniquity, you can find no sin in the Thirteen files; Let me speak understanding; God is alive; and you should believe in him; for those who say that God is not there; how much do you understand; are you really wise; do you understand all things; do you understand more than Leon; He who created the Thirteen Files; and the one with the book of Heaven; If they are those among you who understand like Leon; the thing is that you understand all things, you understand all things, that is if you understand all things; but no will accept any answer that you will give them; and that is because; it makes no sense; then; if it is like this; I will surely say that God lives; and there is God, then; you might want to know is this God; He is God; the God to whom Leon asked wisdom, knowledge and understanding from; He is called The LORD; very great; He is very mighty; The LORD; and His love is very great; His love is very great that up to this day; He still talks to His people; the words I am telling; and all that I have written; It wasn't my own understanding; It was God Himself speaking. Then You will read my words and other books; and you mighty think that you have become very wise; you might think that you are very wise than any other men; and you might make the common sayings that have been said by the wise ever since the beginning; "that there is no God", this is what all the wise men have come saying; and I also said it; but this saying is just a derision; that God Himself puts in the mind of the wise; therefore; if someone has never said that “there is no God”, watch that persons wisdom; for this is the badge that God gave to all the wise people, every wise person must at a certain time say; “there is no God”, therefore; if any wise man does not make this claim; they are not wise.

(Ts10) LPT160 Then I saw the world; and all that it was made up of; I knew not why things were the way they were; but I knew that all that I had made belonged not to me; I was seeing like I was going life behind; I had gained all understanding; but I saw that all things were just the same; life is much hard to live without the recognition of gods, then I saw that everyone who is humble; is the greatest; the more humble you are; the more greater you are.

(Ts2) LPT161 Then after rising from death; some people will be taken unto other planets; to live there.

(Ts7) LPT162 Is wisdom turning around; or understanding going behind me; for the mind is sometimes absent in the presence of thoughts; then I thought to myself; that what was good for a man to do; I looked at all that man had created; I also considered the works of men; I saw that men should do that which nature has put before them to do.

(Ts6) LPT163 Live life well; because you will use it; do everything well; because you will use them; in everything that you do; do it well; assume that you are in the competition of doing that thing; would you admit to be last; therefore; this is how things ought to be done; well and nice; with concentration and focus; well and good.

(Ts37) LPT64 Then I looked at the sons and daughters of the world; I saw that it is good for people to believe in God even though; He is not there; then concerning the Spirit; things are constant always; the humble is the greatest; then when I tried to speak everything that I could think of; I saw that it was harm to the world; whenever; you are arguing; you are a fool; even though you are right; so; restrain from arguing; always being sure that you have one spirit with whom you are arguing with; then to fight is also senseless; all is empty; to kill is an act of nature; to do evil is an act off nature; the same spirit does all things; good or evil; thinking and all that goes around the world; everyone has a level different from the other; levels are increased whenever features are available; then I thought of what man can be; behold; it was senseless; that people should think of what to become; not what to do; the mind does not consider the 99 successes; but it considers the 1 fail in a day; so; no matter how successful you are; you can't be happy; happiness comes after terminating failures; I fear failing than I fear death; yet every day I fail as I die; every time you sleep; you die; then; how can the spirit be killed; when the body in which the spirit lives dies; the spirit does not die with that body; the spirit; the spirit; where does it go; it remains on earth; but it has no mouth to speak, no nose, no hands, no legs, to do anything, therefore the spirit is featureless, if God is a spirit; the he is featureless; unless when the spirit has eyes to see other spirits; but not humans; if spirits really live; they have features that do activities among them; not among other creatures; they can only interact among themselves; spirits don't grow in age; they don't have a face; I can't say what the spirits are made up of; because my features can't see the features of the spirits; but it is true that spirits don't die; and it is true that God is there; because spirits exist.

(Ts11) LPT165 Why when I pray for something; it does not happen at that time; why do I have to wait; why do things come after waiting; and not at that time? When you pray; it is true that what you pray for will happen; it does not happen immediately; but it will happen; may I be at peace; may humans flee from me; may all nations move to another planet. Do not anger anyone; do not do harm to any person; do not do any bad thing to any person. Don't do any bad thing to any person; do not bring harm to any person; don't hurt anyone; when they curse you; it is true; their curses will catch you;

(Ts5) LPT166 Man has cursed for no reason; if I have done this; If I have done evil to any man; or caused one to cry; may their curses attack me; preserve me; oh; LORD; guide my spirit; for man is cursing me for no cause; he really wants to see me headlong.

(Ts16) LPT167 Things take long to happen; when we pray; but they happen, because bad or good things happen to us; if you want to test this; pray for a bad thing to happen to you; you will know that good is transparent; everything that people pray for passes through him; and those things come to pass; and they happen; then; people should pray for everything, God needs to be persuaded; when you pray for somethings; it is easy for good to give; even God does not know what will happen; so; he is shocked when you pray for somethings; therefore; you should sometimes persuade Him; there should be a gain in your plan; God should have a way of benefiting from your plan; this is like putting a thought in someone; persuade God; like how you persuade your fellow humans. Persuade; God; let God see where He is going to gain from; by this; prayers will be answered;

(Ts4) LPT168 Then; to Gods; they also don't know what will happen; so they are shocked when they hear you praying; but Gods don't have ears to hear prayers; what answers prayers; air; maybe right; air answers prayers;

(Ts4) LPT169 Opportunity comes to the one in its path; also danger comes to the man in its way, then failing is success; and success is failure; as success is never seen by the mind; and failure is the eye of the human;

(Ts1) LPT170 Then is crying also a prayer; maybe.

(Ts6) LPT171 Then I looked at what was done among the sons of men; all they did well was sin; that never ceased; God can you hear; you should hear; and consider the groaning of the poor man; LORD; you number my wonderers; put my tears into your bottle; LORD; oh God; my rock; I delight in you; let me not be put to shame; let not man prevail over me;

(Ts8) LPT172 Then understanding seems to stop coming to a man; as long as he stops writing; then; one who studies the earth is a fool; for spirits are real; but the skills of this world seem to be useless to the skills of a spirit; then; I saw somethings; in a way they were; I saw no attraction to my side; they displeased me; then about dreams; I tend to dream a lot now days; but I don't write about them; neither can I understand their meaning;

(Ts3) LPT173 Is the mind the spirit; I don't know the mind; but I know that what you are calling the mind; is the spirit; what about the heart; that leave it; it is useless;

(Ts4) LPT174 I am Leon; the wisest; the understanding one among the sons of men; I am the one having the Heavenly book; I wish I had more hands around my stomach; that I would do more tasks than any other men.

(Ts2) LPT175 We are still not yet in Heaven; but soon; we shall have a Heaven; thus says Leon.

(Ts2) LPT176 Money is like rain; you don't know when it will come; but it comes to those who believe in God.

(Ts8) LPT177 Then concerning heaven; we will make it; may the LORD give me more days; so that I write as much as I can write; but I am also tired of the earth; I want to rest; like how all the wise have rested; but will it be like this; will my rest be of no cause; will it be worthless; but I have transgressed in my writing; and in my teachings; there are half cooked meat; I have not been of great hardworking; yet of great knowledge.

(Ts2) LPT178 I saw that things should be maintained the way; they are; and that people should seek for good only; and leave evil, they should only want doing good.

(Ts26) LPT179 Without, How to keep motivation; we start doing somethings; but as time passes; the desire for those things die; a desire dies after it has be satisfied, or omitted; every desire can be satisfied or omitted; for everything that you do; you do it as long as you still have the desire for it; for most of the things you do; you do them; because there is a desire for those things; you can feel cold in the morning; when what you are doing; is lacking a motivation; when there is no motivation; you won't feel enough craving to do something; to crave something is to badly want to do something; that other things become unnecessary to you; that is why it is good that before you do anything; you first write a readme for that thing; the readme; will help you remember the purpose and praise for that thing you are doing; otherwise you know that everything we do is useless; it makes no sense and it has no sense. Whatever you are doing; whatever you are thinking of doing; all that is useless; but it is good that for everything you do; do it well and as perfect as you can; because it is useless; but to you; it is of high sense; but motivation for things die; we reach a time when we get tired from all that we have done; we feel exhausted; and we no longer feel the desire to continue with the things we used to do; unless for new things; the desire always seems to be there when we are to test new things; but; you should know; that things are all the same; and in all things; it is one spirit, then why does the desire die; the desire die; because everything that people do is useless; if any of the things in the world has a useful purpose; all humans would have done that one thing; because all humans have one spirit; you think that making cars is the best job; to someone else; it is the worst thing they can do; not even God is of value or use; because if God was of value or use; all people would have followed and believed in him; everything done in the world is useless and of no value; but one thing that joins all people is money; the ways of getting money; you will see that they are the same.

(Ts8) LPT180 Don't promise anything; as long as you are still in the body; don't make an oath; as long as you are still in the body; in the body; your current state is you; if at this time you are singing, that is you; if at this time you are memorizing the BVM, that is you; if at this time you are killing someone; that is you, YCSY; YCSY means your current state is you; knowing that you can be anything; and you can be anyone; and you can do anything; you don't have the ability to control what you want to be; you don't control; what you want to do; you control nothing, even the thirteen files have failed to disappear the Gods; you can't by your mind be a God; except in theory;

(Ts1) LPT181 Until the right time; you won't get whatever you want.

LPT182 Let me talk about this; as the wise among the sons of men; for I have seen; rich people; or I have observed a rich person; who thinks that is wise; and he puts his trust in his money; it is a delusion; money gives you an ability to get what you want; but you can only get physical things; money can't be used to get spiritual things; and with money; you are nothing; on earth; but with spiritual teachings; you are wise and one who understands all things, why were all the prophets poor people; and no rich person speaks about the kingdom of God; also; in my great poverty; I have gained understanding like the understanding of the prophets of the Bible; and almost to all of them; I have gained more understanding than all of them; because after all; I am the one to rise them from death, God has been very pleased with me; that He has decided to give this responsibility to me; Thank you God.

LPT183 Mighty destroys mighty; humbleness can never be compared; for humans destroy their fellow humans; cows and goats and sheep; and anything in the middle stage; can't destroy man; yet a disease; in its tiny feature; and of great humble; destroys humans.

LPT184 On my 20.1; I see no reason of one man commanding the death of two men; it is gainless and of no favor in my sight; for it is true that you have made Gods among yourselves; and you no longer need to call to God; for if a man can command tow people to die; then that man has become a God; but remember this; the actions that Adam did; they are the same actions being done; the world has not changed,

(Ts9) LPT185 Humans are limited; like all other creatures; the night time comes and it takes all of them to bed; for we must believe that God controls nature; but the mind of God is not different from the mind of other creatures; if humans can kill other creature and also kill themselves; how much more; will God destroy humans, for without these writings; my role is nothing; and without these teachings; I have done nothing.

(Ts6) LPT186 The mind is experience; your mind is experience; you are your experience, you are what you have been through; no one can ever be like you; because your experience determines your perception; the way you view things is determined by the things you have been through.

(Ts8) LPT187 People are the devil; that is why when you think; you think about people; then; people are God; that is why when you think getting something good; it is people you think about giving you that thing; then it is also people who give you whatever you want and need, so people are God; your mother is God; because she is the one who feeds you. But then; these Gods die;

(Ts4) LPT188 I have realized that the Gods gave us so much time to live on earth; 24 hours everyday is too much time; humans should have been given 4 hours on earth; 2 hours for working; and 2 hours for sleeping.

(Ts3) LPT189 What can cause the spirit to die; what kills the spirit; the body kills the spirit; when the body fails in a specific area; then your spirit dies.

(Ts5) LPT190 Behold; you are hurting yourself by having bad emotions; by feeling bad; you are only hurting your now; consider how many times you have hurt yourself; yet right now; you those feelings no longer feel hurting; everything ends; bad or good; evil or bad.

(Ts2) LPT191 Do animals also know about good and evil; no; animals don't know what is good and what is evil.

(Ts3) LPT192 thoughts don't control the body; it is emotions that control the body; and emotions are being controlled by the Daily Schedule.

(Ts46) LPT193 Think about something without sound; think about people but when they speak no words; just see images; that don't speak, you will find out that the thinking is not enjoying or satisfying; words control the world; nothing is done without words; the world is not enjoyable without speaking. You will notice that sometimes you think of words or conversations without thinking about the images, because all praise comes from speaking; no image or picture can ever represent a speech; no image or video; can be more effective than a speech. That is why you can't enjoy a movie without sound; even though what genre; and yet; even bad movies seem good with sound. You will know that all your thoughts are voices; and not images. Try thinking about something without voice or conversations in it; you will find it unsatisfying; you will dislike it. Without sound or speech; there is no continuation of anything; nothing can continue without sound or speech. Don't speak in your thought; and all thoughts will stop; because without speech; everything; ceases. Just think of images only; don't include their voices; and see whether that thought will survive its life. Human beings are always speaking; even at times when their mouth are quiet; their minds are always speaking, conversing, making loud shouts; making voice. You can't think something without sound; without speech; there is nothing; imagine if all people were silent and did not speak; you would even run from your nearest kin; without speech; there is no intimacy; no love; no hatred; no anger; no war; no fighting; no violence; no peace; care; nothing there is; without speech; and I have seen; that through speech; people act; through words things are done. Without voice; there is nothing; movies are made with pictures to show how circumstances were happening or in which way did those circumstances happen; that is why even though someone is speaking very important information; if you don't understand what they are speaking; it is senseless; and it makes no sense before you; meanwhile; when you listen to someone speaking no sense; by time; you are likely to raise emotions toward that speech; because voices cause emotions. Without speech; it is like death. If you want to kill any thoughts; and if you want to feel fully present; living lively in the now; stop including voices in your imaginations; it is thoughts that build up imaginations; imagine thinking about people; but they don't speak, it feels sucking, it feels horrible, you will find peace when you have mastered to destroy your thoughts in this way.

(Ts17) LPT194 If we say that nothing is good; and that nothing is bad; we have turned to be like animals; for it is animals that don't know good and evil, if we are to still live as human beings; we must accept that somethings are bad and that somethings are good; but it won't be a constant thing; we won't tie laws to one thing; we won't say; that this is bad; and that this is good; for if we speak like this; are we not being of little knowledge; for the Laws were given from God; and all the wise have repeatedly been speaking of these; then what is bad and what is good; if laws are continuously broken; then this; "a good thing is what is good in the society and a bad thing is what is bad in the society", when the society considers something to be good; that thing should be considered good by all individuals; then what the society as regarded as bad; that thing should be bad to all individuals; otherwise; no law has never been broken; not even the easiest law.

(Ts16) LPT195 Try asking God to kill you, try asking God for something bad to happen to you; have you died; or when will you die; it is impossible; therefore; the inverse is also true; also when you ask for good things from God; it is impossible; it is sad; but what you should know is that God is like a booster; He boosts things; and He can do that anytime, this is what I am talking about; when you pray to God for you to die; that prayer is only effective when you are preparing ways of killing yourself; when you pray to God to give you a job; that prayer is only effective when you are seeking a job; when you pray to God for finishing a project; that prayer is only effective when you are working on a project. God is good at boosting what you are already doing; He is not there to create new routes for you; God is not there to create new opportunities for you; he is only there to help you.

(Ts8) LPT196 Humas have a lot of time on earth; do the plants also have past and future; do plants also have life? Then what is life; death is also life; if a plant can be produced today; and the next day it is dead; then it means that death is also part of life; there is nothing to fear in death, imagine how many insects have died before your eyes; that is death; it is simple and easy; not harm; not pain; but part of life. Death is something not to be feared; think about the insects, plants, and other creatures that die each minute; yet they neither feel pain; or being hurt by death.

(Ts22) LPT197 Then every man alive is mad, for humans speak every second of their life; there is always a voice or voices in the head of a person, sometimes people regard to this as thinking; but it is not thinking; it is speaking, we know that you can't think about something without sound; therefore; as you think about something; you are creating conversations within your mind; this is mind-speaking, not thinking. Test and see; try your mind and you will understand what I am telling you; you are always speaking within your mind, and all other people; everyone is always speaking within their minds, this is why humans can't have similar perceptions; because you are always speaking in your mind and not being present, if you would concentrate your mind in the present moment; you would see things and perceptions more clear than you are doing right now. There is a voice you are speaking in your mind; but you are just not using your mouth, this is why that every word spoken by the mouth is a lie; because when you speak with your mouth; you don't speak what is in your mind; but you speak what you must speak toward that person before you; or the people before you. You make voices always in your mind; and that is why I say that every person is mad, just admit that you are mad; because you don't understand. I want to get another word to mean a person who understands, a person who understands is this; one who write, I can't use the word wise to mean someone who understands, for a wise person doesn't need the writing feature; meanwhile; a person who understands needs the writing feature. If you were to speak what you are thinking right now; you would hear words of being praised; you would hear people praising themselves, as we know that the mind mostly wants praise, you would hear words from voices of women; yet you are a man, you are mad; just admit to that.

(Ts2) LPT198 The higher you go near the sun; the cooler it becomes, also the more you like something; the more you hate it; and vice versa,

(Ts4) LPT199 Why when they invented phone calls; why did they aim at transporting voice; and not picture or image; the voice is all needed in the world; just put voices in your mind; and you will think only about that.

(Ts5) LPT200 I don't belong to humans, count me not as a human, my nature is called files; that is my species; files; who is understanding all things; what is hard for me to answer; there is no question I can never fail to answer yet; you can never accept my answers.

1/20/2026

(Ts6) LPT201 Why would I keep quiet, yet I am the most understanding among the world, and among those who dwell therein; I won't give laws of how life you should live, or what to do; or any law, but this I say; nothing, I will say nothing, now you will say; the one who understands kept silent; the man of understanding did not speak, he kept silent, he condemned us, he was despised with us; Leon condemned us, you man.

(Ts5) LPT202 Don't focus about what you see in dreams, rather put your focus to what is being said in the dreams. When you lie down and dream; if you see pictures; that dream is false, what should be considered in the dream are the words spoken;

(Ts5) LPT203 Now I have seen that the BVM wants to surpass the Daily Schedule, if the Daily Schedule is surpassed; then that shows that the Daily schedule is not the greatest, and if the Daily Schedule is not the greatest; there is something greater.

(Ts15) LPT204 When you watch a movie, you don't enjoy the movie, you only enjoy the voices in your head, a movie is just something that increases the voices in your head, you don't enjoy the movie; you enjoy the voices in your head; to test this; turn on a movie, remove the volume and make your mind not to think. Because you think, thus; you have emotions, emotions are brought by thinking, stop thinking; and you won't feel good or bad, this is why I said that the BVM, surpasses the daily schedule, because the BVM makes you emotionless, when you are emotionless, you can't feel good or bad for not doing somethings, the daily schedule helps in not making you feel bad; so the BVM just destroys all emotions, and you only remain with the now, with the spirit, the BVM leaves you only with the spirit, destroying other things.

(Ts2) LPT205 You can live all life; you can live like a snake, you can like a bear; all life can be lived.

(Ts7) LPT206 You should differentiate between attractive and satisfying things; tests tend to be attractive; but they never satisfy, the Daily Schedule satisfies, and doing what is right brings satisfaction. When your legs are cold, all your body will get cold, in the same way; when your thoughts are of happiness; all your body will be happy, and thoughts are only voices in your head.

(Ts14) LPT207 I fear what is in me, because it is what is in every person, what is in you; is what is in your enemy, look yourself in the mirror, do you see that, person inside, the body is you; but look directly in the eyes of the mirror, is that you, say "is this me", look in the eyes of the mirror, smile and say; "is this me", If you saw nothing, you are a fool then, what I am saying is that you are not the one inside your body, what is in your body is a spirit, and the spirit is one. Ok; imagine that you wake up one day when you are having a face of another person; this is when you will know that you are not who you see; you are spirit, and this same spirit is in all things; even in your worst enemy, if you still have questions to aske me, you are a fool, because the spirit in me; is the same spirit in you; if I could know all these things; how much more will you be knowing.

(Ts4) LPT208 The way you want life to be; unfortunately; it is never like that, and it is always not much more than the voices in your head, without those voices, there is no fear, no anxiety, no emotion, whether good or bad, you will never feel anything; if you live your life like this.

(Ts16) LPT209 The mind is a tool, your mind is your spirit, the minds of humans are evil; except for a few, behold; when you think, first you think that you are a human, but understand this first; your spirit is not your body, what you see in a mirror is not your mind, your hands; are not your mind; all your body is different from your mind which is the spirit, understand how one thing succeeds in being all creatures, understand how the spirit lives in you and at the same time living in all the creatures you see, this is why Moses grouped the devil and God; yet it is one spirit, because a person who does wrong things has the same spirit like the person who does good things, so there is no way to say that those people are having the same spirit; yet this is the truth; to put it in simple way for fools to understand; the person who does evil things was called to have the devil's spirit, and a person who did right things was called to have God's spirit, yet it is one spirit in every person, and yet none of them has God's spirit. I don't want to speak Heavenly things here, lest you be despised, understand that your mind is your spirit, then on this understand that have God's spirit; you must love all creatures more than you can do; yes, even the snake, because it also has the same spirit like you.

(Ts12) LPT210 Children are never free if they are still under the control of their guardians, for it is worse for a child if it comes that the guardian is a fool, one of no understanding, therefore; all grownups, and all men and women in the land, you bring suffering to the little one when you act like fools, a delightful child is pleased in the wisdom of his father, but the suffering and sorrow of children whose guardians are fools will never stop, until the burial of the guardian, does the child receive relief, and on that he delights; though he doesn't show it to the public. How delighted is a child when their guardians are wise, much pleased are they than princess, and a king's pleasure doesn't measure to them. For a person hates their life before age 20, and how assured are you that they will love what they have begotten, truly; only those with understanding can carry out this; and it is only people who understand who can raise orphans; and not fools, for even if a rich man is fool, he remains rich, and no rich person can understand, not even the king.

(Ts25) LPT211 Then you will say; did Leon write, what did Leon write; check the writings and tell us; what is good and what is bad, what are we supposed to do when it comes to this situation, check what the man of understanding wrote. Then you will look but you will never see, you will read, but you will not understand, by this you will then say, indeed Leon condemned us by not writing about this, Leon did not care about us, maybe he forgot, behold, for the Gods entrusted him with greater understanding, they gave him much understanding than he deserved, for he understood everything, yet he was not hardworking like the great writers who came before him, he did not use his understanding as he was supposed to use it, he was a lazy man and his delight was in money and good life, he did not work as one who works for the kingdom of God. Then at that time, you will start praying to God, you will pray to God to send someone who understands than Leon did, you will say to God, "Oh God, we wish that you send someone from among us, that a man of great understanding may rise among us." You will pray this prayer, but what will come after this prayer, you will not like it, a judge will rise from among you, one who will have a heart like that of an iron, and a mind like that of a caterpillar, he will not be moved by any of your words, no lie shall fall among his ears, and in him shall come out no lie.

(Ts11) LPT212 Don't care about anything, don't even think about anything, for you say, I love God, you fool, and do you know what it takes to love God, it is easy to fast for three days than to love God as you say, and again, you man of little understanding, you don't love anything and you have never loved anything, you fool, you say, I am Holy, you fool man, and all mankind, I fail what say; and you will call this condemnation, that Leon sometime kept quiet, and he did not speak any word of understanding, by this you would bring me back to life, and I will tell you what you want to know, all your questions shall be answered.

(Ts4) LPT213 Isn't this tiresome, is it not satisfying that we live life again and again, at least the dead are at rest, and child who died before birth is pleased. Behold dying is more pleasant than being born, (Ts18) LPT214 In the 2nd Teachings you learn from my experience, in the 3rd Teachings; you learn from my understanding, the truth is that I have no understanding about the Gods, but I am glad that I am the most knowledgeable person on earth, but as I said people are fools, a person will ask you, if you understand all things, what is $1+1$, well I don't know the answer, for what do you think this is, if you asked God "what is $1+1$ ", would you be surprised when God doesn't know the answer, $1+1$, what is this, oh humans. Until you stop thinking that tomorrow is a day you will see your problems, what is the difference between yesterday, today and tomorrow, If you judge people, first say; me and the person who did wrong things have one spirit, and it is the spirit in us that does all things, then say to yourself "spirit why did you make this person do this wrong thing", then realize, if the spirit caused that body to do that thing, it means it wasn't pleased with him, somethings you do, and you think you are the one who do them, no, there is a spirit that causes all things to happen.

LPT215 When you want to laugh, become a spirit and watch people in their loneliness, do you know why people like movies with killing, sexual relations, and disasters, because that is what is always on people's minds, they can't speak it, so when they watch it, they get more features to sustain their ability of thinking, for a human mind has never stopped thinking, except for a few who have gained the special knowledge.

(Ts15) LPT216 Then, I saw that the things that attract us are never satisfying, I realized that whatever we do out of attraction never brings positive satisfaction. Time being the most unwanted among the sons of men, yes, no one ever considers time, yet it is time that is most important in all things; again I will say, if any among you ever and ever leaves the Daily Schedule; you are gone. I don't even know how many times I have talked to you concerning the Daily Schedule, but the bad is worse in the absence of the Daily Schedule, I mean that if you don't have a Daily Schedule, bad emotions multiply themselves by two, without the Daily Schedule, bad emotions turn into worst problems, without the Daily Schedule, your enemies are two times stronger than you are, without the Daily Schedule, even God is despised to help you from your troubles.

(Ts12) LPT217 I realized that anything that is always attractive is not good, and by this, I noticed that it is much better for people to rely on the Thoughts file, since the Thoughts files postpones things, and whenever things are postponed, the desire or the craving for those things die, and when it has died, that is the right time for us to take action, the time when you no longer want to attack your enemy; that is the right time for you to attack, the time when you no longer want to kill yourself, that is the right time you should take action. The case here is that you try as much as you can to avoid taking attractive actions, or doing anything attractive, as much as you can, limit anything that is attractive.

(September 29,2025)

How is your life? Life can be further understood on the graph. When you move to the East, you are keeping circumstances constant, when you go to the North, you are increasing, so how is your life, where is your life.

I wonder about life, but it's not a misery, I wonder and worry about the mind. For what it does what it does not do.

September 29, 2025

Business and patience are twins, no, matter what you think, think right, you can't succeed in a business without patience.

But what is the mind like, an intellectual being, it is very strong, very mighty.

Oh you my mind, how sensitive you are, and how misleading you are. Truly, are you of me or of evil, but I will choose good over evil, choice is within me, in my heart and in my mind lies all my perception. I persevere, choose not to give up, but the weight of my view is high, seeing evil as good, and imagining iniquity as luck. A broken heart and a deaf mind, do I wish.

Thoughts are the same to all human beings. In all people, thoughts are the same, but think about this, we all wake up, but each of us takes different routes, we all choose different opinions. Everyone thinks about what they should do, imagine if we all thought of one thing, and if we all sought one thing, how would it be. But some people have already experienced somethings that we haven't yet experienced, we all see the world in different perspectives, but you should know, that the mind uses the information it has passed through to make decisions, what drives the mind are the goals that a person wishes to complete. It is hard to live the mind of today today. The mind things and it tells you the goal of the kind of person who wants to be but the mind does not tell you when you will become that person who will you will complete dot com go to store so this is the problem some girls come from known into the world they became familiar and I will call you familiar goals FDA these are girls that all people became familiar with like will you sing this is one of the FDA it is very common that people don't realize it is a goal people think about giving birth is a life process or something common is something over the life but I can tell you that what you see is a good we have seen on the FBL studying in schools is also becoming FDA but let us look at another what is unfamiliar goals UPN these are girls that are uncommon udaan and they are almost and every person is mine udaan may vary from gender call ma kalisha Kumar society, country, and many other factors. We are looking at girls the definition of course is simply goes on what drives the mind. Let me speak about one thing to know is that at one time you will be dead how's the result there is a device play cockroach oh you're right, virtual guy Kumar what is human life like what did the God speak Kumar I find list, who do I treasure go to store something with the mind it is mine Chrome the spirit boils down between the mind. Regardless of what happens, seek patience and be mindful of your time. How has man made the cup is mine, and how are the words looked like select all select mindful video

Don't make any oath, even at the easiest thing you can do, don't promise. Then when you want to gain special understanding, flee yourself from people, talk nothing with any man and don't take counsel with people.

I saw that whatever goes into the body comes out, also whatever goes into the spirit comes out, when anger goes into a person, that person releases that anger to another person, but do you understand what we are talking about here, anger, do you feel the weight of this word, anger, very mighty. Some words shouldn't even be spoken, because when something is spoken, there is a way it sounds meaningless, you, might tell someone; I am angry with you, here the person you are telling won't feel the intensity of the word, the person will only get the meaning of the word, not the energy of the word, so this is it, we speaking for meaning, not for energy carrying. The true language would have been a language that carries energy no meaning. When the word God is spoken, this is only a meaning, there is no energy in it, it is energyless, so this language is wrong, as God wished that I create a new language on earth, the language that all people understand, the language that is energy carrying, not meaning carrying.

LPT226 Look for people to inspire, not people to motivate.

(Ts6) LPT227 success is what comes after multiple failures and countless surrenders. There is one thing I have seen that should always be with you, "Never fear death". It is good to feel the way you feel, because you don't understand, just accept whatever I am telling you, It is good for you to feel bad, everything you do; just know it is good. One spirit is in all things, but at specific levels, this is why a human being can become whatever he wants to become, a human being can do everything that another human can do, it just requires God (time) and learning, this is because it is one spirit in all things, to prove this, get the brain of an hen and put it into the body of a human being, the person may act like a hen at first, but after realizing the features he has, he will act according to his features. It is good that a person uses their features wisely and in a productive way to maximize potential gain.

(Ts1) LPT228 There is no problem on earth, no bad thing, no terror, nothing bad, it is only in your mind. Everything is good the way it is.

1/31/2026

(Ts2) LPT229 For a person to dream, you need visual features, a dream is made up of images not voices, for you to dream about someone, you need the visual photos or images of those people. Have you ever seen a movie,

2/1/2026

(Ts6) LPT230 There is something we call the mind setup, yes; setting up of the mind, a movie sets up the mind, and so other things. I just wonder whether this life is also just filmed by the Gods, it is a movie, and if it is a movie, it is a lie. You are suffering, but there is someone happy, therefore; your suffering is for the goodness of the world, in whatever you do, and in whatever you see, know that nature sees, and it is keeping all things constant and in good conditions, in other words; there is no suffering,

(Ts37) LPT231 There is a wrong thinking, if you think that money is going to make you happy or that getting something will make you feel happy, you are very wrong, and you are a fool, sorry, but understand, at least have some little understanding, is money something that you are going to drink to go your brain, is it a feature that you are going to attach to your brain and feel happy, if not, you know that what makes you happy comes from your mind, and there is no way money is going to reach there, I suppose that taking drugs is not a bad thing, moreover, this is not a debate, I understand and you are a fool, yet you want to argue with me, you want to make a debate with me. I understand all things, but I am not wise, because a wise person does not live on earth, the earth is for humans, and for rich people, a human created money, so that money could control all things but on earth, so I see no good thing of being rich, because you don't understand by having money, but there are plenty of poor people who are fools, but after all, I see not gain and no difference in either being a rich or a poor, I see one who is better than all, a man who has died, also to one who understands, I see no gain or difference, a dead man is better, then, who is a person, what is life, ok, Life is this, anything with a feature is life, anything having a feature is life, leave your foolishness that life is something alive, or breathing, or moving, everything you see, hear or feel is life. Then what is a person, he is a person, a person is a person, ask this question in a way you would like me to answer, there is no question I can't answer, yet I am not wise, because no wise person lives on earth, then if someone tells you they are wise, answer them saying, "on earth there are no features for one to be wise", then If that person understands, they would say, "but wisdom comes from the mind, how do you say that on earth, there are no features for one to be wise, to break the conversation short, say them saying "the mind is one of the features for being wise, no ability is full in the absence of a feature", ok, me I have stopped here, you know where your conversation takes you.

(Ts16) LPT232 Then one may ask, do physical features like mountains and stones also have life, for this I fist ask you, what is life? Life is a word, and that is it, what does the word life mean, If I knew what the word life means, I would have answered your question about it, but this word is meaningless, this word is not there in the words of people who understand, the word life is not there, take the words of one who understands. Then the spirit is not connected, not connected, the spirit is not connected you man, get a small piece of fire, and put it on a man before you, who feels pain? Do you all feel the pain, no the one with the feature does feels the pain, you who is watching him, you don't feel the pain, yet, you have the same spirit with that person, so it makes the spirit not connected, it is not connected, you and everything have one spirit; but it is not connected, it is split in everything, it divided itself, it is in split.

(Ts28) LPT233 Then I saw concerning words, they are spoken in levels, but I was disturbed, I wanted to know between scientists, and a man of understanding, which on is great, I noticed that the scientific man is like a rich man, they all don't reach the level of one who understands, so; I was filled with gladness about my understanding, and I praised God for the understanding He had given me, don't joke with some words, God is there, if a man comes and tells you; there is no God, tell them, Leon wrote that there is no God 99 times, but he wrote there is God 100 times, so; which of those times do you fall, do you still say there is no God, then if that person still says there is no God, tell them this, "Go and after 40 Days come back and tell me what you have told me."

Some of the words I use here are in Level one, because a fool starts to understand at Level 7, and I don't have all that time to explain, the collectors should have some understand, they will explain more about what I said and meant, but most of my writings are straightforward, it is just that you are fools, that is why you don't understand them. Then you will say, Leon was a man of bad discipline, for he called us fools, but is it not true, are you not fools, you are fools because you have features for fools, to put it right, you don't have features for understanding, and if you lack features, there is no ability, if humans had wings (feature), they would be able to fly (ability), wings is the feature, and flying is the ability, without the feature, there can't be an ability, I believe in God, but even God can't make you fly without first giving you wings, you can't talk without having a mouth.

(Ts48) LPT234 Can a problem happen in the presence of the Daily Schedule, No, explain, concerning the Daily Schedule, I don't explain, don't you know that the Daily Schedule is my master. Then you shall say, what did Leon talk about raising children, we heard that he understood all things, what did Leon really write about children, and how should they be raised, am I a judge, raise you children as you wish, but know, you and that child have one spirit, any creature at its early stage is meaningless, then, someone might say, me I love my children, but that is a lie, you can't love anything, because first you don't love yourself, if a spirit fails to love itself, how can it love someone else, it is a lie for the fools, know that no one loves you, not even your spirit, your spirit doesn't love you, what is inside your body does not love you, go and look in the mirror, and look in your eyes, and say, "what is inside me?" That which is inside you is the spirit, not you, the Spirit is not you, what is inside you is not what you see when you look in the mirror, there might be someone among you who thinks that they understand than me, if that person is you, go and watch a movie, and come back and look in the mirror, and say, “what is inside me”, that part is for those who have some understanding, not everyone, ok, even you; you can do it, but you won’t understand what I was debating, you may understand, but you will understand something else from what I was debating, then you will ask yourself, what is me, if the man of understanding has said that I am not that which I see in the mirror, since I have answers to all questions, you are this, what is in everything, and what is in everything, The Spirit, you are The Spirit, which is also in God, and in all things. You know, I like giving you examples, so that also fools can understand me, imagine waking up when you are a dog, when your Spirit is still in you, but when you are in the body of a dog, do you think, you would be able to talk, do you think that you would need any of your clothes, money, business, no, you won’t need anything, because you would have become a dog but when you are still having the same spirit, that is why I said that you are not that which you see in the mirror, then someone of understanding would like to bring up a debate, because I said “no, you won’t need anything, because you would have become a dog”, a person who understands would say, dogs have different mind sizes and features from humans, so they can have the same abilities as humans, only a person with understanding can recognize this, but to cancel this debate, I say, is the mind the spirit? If yes; peoples emotions would be different, there would be some people who don’t feel pain, hatred, anger, but if no, there is no invisible thing in the body. Don’t think that the spirit is something you can’t see, but atoms are not seen, but they are there, so, do I need science in this.

(Ts24) LPT235 The mind can’t stop at something that makes it wonder, to prove this, watch a movie, the mind will stop, and sleep, there are few things that cause the mind to stop. When you sleep, atoms run and rest in the mind, the head holds all the atoms of the body when you are sleeping, that is why it is good to have little atoms that to be with excess or many atoms in the body. Is there something in the body, is there a spirit in the body, no, what is the difference between a dead person and a person who is alive, a dead person is one who has lost a specific feature, and so the body fails, whereas a live person, is one with all features required to keep the body alive, sure, is this definition authentic, I thought that dead person is one without a spirit in him, and alive person is someone with the spirit in him, then what is the spirit, it is that which is inside your body, why can't I see it, I can see my bod, I can see my legs, I can see my ears, but I can't see the spirit, isn't it a feature, to give me the ability of life, I am getting confused here. Have you ever seen a movie, the only difference is time, and congratulations humans for stepping out of time. We have one rule, and it is time. Is it true that if we share the same Daily Schedule, we are the same Spirits, yes, and that is only brought about by the Daily schedule.

(Vi2) LPT236 Doctors treat the body, collectors will treat spirits, how do you treat a spirit, can you treat an atom

(Ts8) LPT237 Should I speak the secrets, the mysteries, hear this, there is no spirit in the body, your body is your body, and that is it, nothing is inside you, no Spirit, just your body, in other words, you are that what you see in the mirror. Know this, that on earth you are like a cockroach before the Gods. If you can get features, you have the ability, without an Airplane, you can't fly, without wings, you can't fly, have you ever seen a lizard flying, or a snake, no, also without features, there can be no ability, gain the feature, and you will have gained the ability, concerning thinking, the mind is the feature, thinking is the ability. I have seen that you can't be idle, you can't do nothing within time, being in time is also work, as long as there is time, you are always doing something, you think that when you sleep, you are free from working, no, sleeping itself is a work. If you become smaller than a lizard, it will eat you, nature destroys what is below it, if a lizard grew larger than the size of a human, the lizard would eat you, and you would have died, with your body being eaten, and nothing remain of you, only nature satisfies itself, yes, nothing bad or good ever happens, everything is nature, the lizard that eats a human feels good, the eaten man does not feel good, so how do we tell which one is right. How is the movie attractive to the mind, the movie gives you a broad way of thinking, and that is why it does not feel like a work, or that is why it is attractive.

(Ts10) LPT238 A Breathing mad man is loved more than a dead king, so, the moment you stop breathing, nothing is remain of you, if there is love, I don't know about it, who is there to tell me what love is, for I don't understand what it means. Anything that is not attractive, you will not do it. Life is passing time, you will realize that the most important thing for you was to live, to serve time. Look at animals, is there a goal to be accomplished on the animal's side, is there anything they must really do, you see that they live through time, just passing through it.

LPT239 Things that don't attract us, are invisible to the mind, the mind never cares about such things.

2/5/2026

(Ts2) LPT240 It is the song that makes Dream, the song, not a movie, the song, not visual, the voice.

2/8/2026

(Ts6) LPT241 There is a difference between wealth and richness, every person and most people are rich, but they are not wealthy, for wealthy is the crown of a man, and the LORD is the provide of wealth. For if a person has some money, they are rich, but a wealthy person is considered by his possessions, what they own; crowns them with wealth. So people should seek wealth more than riches, for riches suddenly vanish, and a rich man is bodyguard of the wealth man.

(Ts28) LPT242 There are many parts in the mind, one of them is the attraction part (ATP), the attraction part (ATP) is that part that makes you crave something, it is that part which takes over whenever there is an attraction, any attractive thing is controlled by this attraction part (ATP). It is bad to know that all these parts are in one body, because every action makes an effect, a change in the Daily Schedule changes our entire Daily schedule, and what happens after this is not the Daily Schedule, is the Mystery Schedule, this comes after there has been change in an activity in the Daily Schedule, the 1st and most important Law according to Leon is that you must never disobey the Daily Schedule, once you enter the Mystery Schedule, you are another person, we become other personalities whenever we disobey or break the Daily Schedule, if we could change faces whenever we changed our personalities, most of the people would wake up having different faces every day. The attraction part (ATP) changes the Daily Schedules of us, whether we realize it or no, the good thing is that everything should be done in its right time, and this is what the Daily schedule teaches, we have to take the Daily Schedule as our God, because it is blameless in all things. We should make good things attractive, starting with the Daily Schedule and the Court files, we have to make these attractive, so that they can always control the attraction part (ATP).

(Ts2) LPT243 Also a spirit of a poor man suffers, the body of a poor man is full of sorrow.

(Ts4) LPT244 Movies are attractive to a great extent than you can know, when you watch a movie, it can attract the attraction part (ATP), and once the attraction part (ATP) is controlled, you can't yourself from the spell,

2/21/2026

LPT2:45 then I give time I decided I will not die I will make time for understanding call mom I noticed, that people understand all things may I consider device. But it is not like that already Google.

2/22/2026

LPT2:46 I have been thinking do a lot of things including the matrix and the other related theories thank you on the mind and all of the spirit and God forbid go to stop. Stop dictating stop dictating delete all There are 4. After the realization. That I understood all things. I looked forward. To answer all your questions. And people might have. I devoted all the life and all my strength. Writings. That would make people wise. And that would make simple people. Understand those things.

(Ts5) LPT2:47 Imagine yourself as dead most of the times. Few months if you do. If you see yourself as a dead person. We're learning to live in life. Imagine that you were you were trained. Imagine that you were the departure. I'll be glad you are alive. What difference does it make? It does not add up to the world. And it does not reduce. On what goes around the world. Things remain in the way they are. Things don't change. No matter you are alive or you are dead. Answer man, knowing he.

(Ts4) LPT2:48 I said I will not be silent forever. Forever. I will not be silent for a long time. What is life? Life is driven by attractions. The mind is a slave attraction. Attraction is like a spell. Which all humans are under. The time is coming. The life of humans is too many. My name is Steve, had very long time in life. Then they do nothing in it. They're doing nothing in it.

(Ts21) LPT2:49 After I added devoted myself. Into knowing all things. And behold. Yes, I knew all the things. I understood all things. I have said. But no one, no question, is right. On the Earth. And it had nothing inspired. That nothing is good. Everything that you do. For everything that is done to you. It is neither bad nor good. Whatever goes around the world. Everything that you see. It is not good or bad. All things are caused by people. Whatever happens to you is caused by you. So how would it harm you? How could it be a bad thing? The world. I know that most people don't realize. They don't even think about what they are animals. But if you don't think that you are under any more. That is the beginning. On the foolishness. You can never understand anything. If you're addicted, that. The true thing is that you are an animal. Their body. The officials. That enable you to have abilities. Ohh, that is nonsense. And it is nothing. I said consider yourself as a dead person. What difference does it make? As a dead person, because that's what you were. Being an animal. You look at the animals, how they die. With the just. Days. Animal can die. And what happens when an animal dies? Nothing. And it is not good. No, it is not bad. Nothing is good and nothing is bad. What if there is no spirit? What if there is no life? Well, there are some things. That's when you can see. But there is growth. A human being grows. Yes, that might be true. Because of the availability of features. The fishers are available. That you. Provide the growth. Yes things girl, but without fishers they are going to be closed. So there is no life. That's correct. It is just deficient. Just be charged.

(Ts64) LPT2:50 Should I write things that I am not? Fully aware about. Should I tell you? What I am certainly. Not sure about. I will discuss with you life today. I will explain to you. They will answer all your questions. These are the factors you need to know. In your life. Because of my understanding. You know, and you feel that whatever I am speaking. Sucking it through. And then nothing comes before my mouth. This is false. I prevent my mouth from taking life. The time. To keep companies from coming within me. Life. What does it mean? Consider yourself as a dead person. All are normal. And you will receive things. Exactly how they are. There's one thing that. I called it a matrix. This is the thinking of all people. But you should know. That you are a human being. That you yourself, you are a human being. Run anymore like any other person. Like someone who models. In the sun meets commits other routine. Someone who does evil. You are not different from that person, no. You are starting with the same. In fact, you are that person. After realizing this. You know that you can do all things. Anything that another person can do. You can also do. That is why you have never seen me, a human being, flying. Because there has never been a human being who has ever lived. Because humans lack fishers. Of flying. But if you get this, officials. You can do what other humans can't. For example. The unit has the features. For understanding. All the things. You need that way. Leon can understand as the ability. Of understanding all things. Yet you don't have that ability. So it is about features and ability. You can't debate with anyone. For you understand the sort of things. Like how I have written. So what do you see on the television? What you see on the screen. You are human. And you see humans. There is no difference from what you see and what you are. There are stages. And their levels. I wanted to make levels of life and I did. I made the levels of money. I made the levels in the daily schedule. I made the efforts in every part of life. They are students. Their levels. I'm not talking about the levels of each spirit. I am talking about deliveries. Then there was there are levels in your mind. Like the path for attraction? If you have a mind, don't lie to yourself. If you have a mind, you have that attraction part. And every human being is their mind. So therefore as long as you have the mind. You have that, but within you. Which I called the attraction part. The attraction part, what can it do? This should be your question. The attraction. But it is that which makes you do all things. Said that consciously or unconsciously. It is that attraction, in part that makes you do all things except in times when you are sleeping, because when you are sleeping you are not conscious. The attraction in part cannot control you when you are sleeping. So this is how you can control it. If you sleep, the attraction part fails. Another word add to control the attraction part. It's time. Time is the thing that controls the attraction part. Like anger? That which you feel is not anger. If someone does you something wrong. You don't speak English. Some of some of you think that the anger is in the heart. And now everything you feel is in your mind. Everything you feel is in your mind. That is why if the mind is corrupted. And placed on to. Growing like a flashy disk. And if that mind can be put into another. You would have everything of that password. What I'm saying is this. If they give you their mind over another person. You would do everything that person wanted to do. Are you getting it? Is your mind that controls everything? The mind can be computed. And then put onto a flash disk. It can be put onto something for storage. Like when I can copy my mind. And put it on the flash disk. And you put in a computer. And I see. But to do that. We need the same with people. But I got the little voice. I will call them the mind was. Mm-hmm. Remind me? This event was at the present position by which the mind works. All the all the attractions, artwork. Who knew about the attraction? It is it is unreal understanding of this. That you had known about these things. Some. Otherwise, otherwise, otherwise. Otherwise it's not. A complaint, arguably intangibly. Tagline, tagline tagline targets.

This is. The mind is there was ever which by the mind. And more than murder for us, not for money. When, when, when, when, When that devastates. If that does not fall, fall, fall. I will ask. I don't know. I am the one having the book of Heaven. Yes, you added that you have it. I have the Book of Men. People that think that we live in. alright But remember. Go through the right things. What advice say? About the heaven. How do you go In evenly matched you achieve eternal life. It is very sad. We are in 2006. But we don't have an end. I don't know when they will be there. But I got to write to you this. So I was still telling you that this is my device and the principles by which the mind works. I always think of killing myself. Because there is nothing I am looking at is good in this life, in this life. whenever whenever whenever whenever whenever whenever Whenever I am writing to you. It's like, it's like I want to write to you about all life and all its meaning. Looks like I want to tell you all the understanding I have. But that is impossible. You cannot tell you everything. Because in order to understand all things like I do. You need the 13 files. We go to the 13 fires. You cannot understand those things. Even though I write about them all. You won't. Because those are the features for the ability. This writings. Given marriage. But they don't give you understanding. And they give you understanding, but they give you little understanding. They don't give you the full understanding. The full understanding is gained. By gaining all the features that are required. If an aeroplane has one wing, it cannot fly. You can if you are missing a leg, one leg you cannot walk. So this is this is fully to fully understand our thinking like chance, chance, chance, chance. 30 minutes. Plants, plants, plants, plants plants plants. Can you spend the days? Without seeing a person. Without talking to anyone. Without specials. There is no ability. Whether you like it or not. It is the features that pose the ability. We won't talk much about that. But you will be of good luck. If I write about the man in the device. And you will be OK. When I write about many other things. before i die I was thinking and I saw that the gods gave humans a lot of years. Are typically 90 yards. That's a lot of time on Earth doing nothing. People die every day. Typically, let me say 100,000 people. Every day. Every day. Yeah, but there's not nothing exciting guys. Cheating is cheating guys. Cheat guys too. Wait, wait, wait, wait. Until, until, until the death. Then you will see. Writing the money has done. You will give praise before his name for what he did. But what is right? What is it that you should know? Because I don't know what to. I don't know what you want to know. The fact is that I can answer all questions. And I understand those things. Thanks to God. Who gave me such brilliant understanding? Yes, I want I did this. It was God who gave me understanding. So I was telling you that. In the coming years. My mind is alive, living more than 90 years. That is the wrong time, doing nothing. In this old earth. More than 100,000 people die every day. But they have lived 90 years, 80 years, 70 years. But I have never heard of their greatness, what they have done. In the coming years humans will live like only for 40 years is also it is also a lot of yards. Humans should live typically three years to four years. But you can see. That humans take a long time to grow. Because a baby when a baby is produced. Takes like one, yeah. To start moving. Crawling. So you can see. That humans take a longer time to grow. Humans organized themselves in a way that is found. But not in a way equal to the gods. Yes, humans organize the themself goods in a good way. But in their way is not equal to the way of gods. It is not the right way. If God's don't die. That is what I also want. I want humans not to die. Wood siding forever. That is what I also want for humans. I don't want any human crying. Why? Why do you cry? Because for me, I don't know what is good and what is bad. And that is, I think that is the problem I have. Though I don't have any problem. I don't know if something is bad and if something is good. Because because of my understanding. And because that I think those things. I can no longer see anything as bad or good. So if you get this understanding, you are full of mine. That's how you lose me. He wanted the knowing of anything, the bad or anything they could. I don't consent. Sit together and you tell me that something is good or that this is bad. No, I'm not a human. How many times have I talked to God but I am not a human? He informed the human What am I? Am I good? I am a person with understanding. I am not a human. The old people who will understand those things just like to me. Want to be humans anymore? Because now for me, kids can't sit in there. And you say look at the human people. What you are you call me a person. Because I have the body of. Being a human. That is what makes me fit in the Humanist. I've ruined the human. You're taking this. If you wake up in the morning when you have a mind of a tiger. You will remain human. Because you will have the best money for humans. You will have the physicians, the body of humans. And they will still call you a human. But in reality, because your mind has changed. You are Murunga human. You are a tiger. To humanism in either way than Vander standing. They forced anybody. If you get the mind of a fish. And you put it into a tiger. Humans will call that fish a tiger because it has the fish of a tiger. So this is it. But one thing comes out. Also, the minds are different. Each creature has its own mind. Their minds are not listening. There are 4. You should understand. Every creature has its own mind. You cannot put the mind of a tiger. To a human being. That won't work right? But you can put a mind of a human being. Include the mind of a human being. Because they have the same mind. So if we are to create flash disks with the mind. I will write to you about this voice. Yes. I want to live. I want to leave you empty handed. I want to leave you in missed reservations. I will write to you Deliverance of the Mind. It is by these levels. That you can add data on to the mind. Like a folder on a laptop. You can just paste that folder into another laptop. I'll put that folder. Onto a flash disk. So that is how it will be. I'm when I'm that that. Through that they followed that of the mind. And how it should be. When? When scientists. OK, when you reach people. Because for me I don't have the resources. But I am the one who understands all things. It will put me into an apparatus. With definition. I assure you, I come out with a human being. So I understand those things. But what I don't have? Are there specials? And to get these features made the man need, which I wish, I wish, I wish I.

(Ts32) LPT2:51 To get understanding. I don't need the money. Should I say it? Do you know why sometimes I call you fools? And you can't deny that. Because you know that is what you are. Oh oh, I always thought, ever been in school? I know how it is like. And I have now the one who understands well seeing this. And I know how it feels like. The people created money. And they created their way of life. And their way of living. I can tell you. That whatever you are living. And whatever you are seeing. It is all created. The body thing is to think. That you are the one. Who created these things? I don't want to confuse you. I want to leave you with some little understanding. Because what I am saying. Even if you are a fool. You can still understand. Some little things. So just know that the world you are seeing. And the world they were living in. Was just created. Everything that you see and everything that you do is creating. Rented by you. By the by the people. And not the people around you. I want you to understand this. These you can think like you are the one who creates your life. You make your own fate. That is the matrix. That is what I call the matrix. I can see that they live. All life is created in truth to things. There's what we call the macro. And there is the micro.

The macro and the micro are different. You don't create macro. You create the micro. So the best thing? Is for you to learn these things which are the macro and which are the micro. Let me not use scientific words to confuse you. Because what I want most is for you to get some understanding. You can't get full understanding. From these writings. If you want to get full understanding like everyone who wrote this book. You needed to have the officials for full understanding. Oh, oh, full understanding means. That you will be able to understand those things like everyone who wrote this book. And what are those physicians? You are blessed. I already wrote them really 13 files. Then this parting files. And then some other features. Like how I have come writing. So there's the big knife and the small life. For you, you can only recreate the smaller life. Which I called the micro. The big life. Is the macro. This is the one which is created. By Amnesia. The terms are used in this book. I use. And my only understanding. So I will tell you. When I am writing this book. You may wonder. Am I using? Small like small light. What is the big knife? The big wave, it is the life that I see. And I can't control it. It is the money I see. It is the way of life of other people. It is the living of other people. And all that I see. What is the small life? The small life. Is that I get a pen. Why open my laptop? I start writing these things. If I don't open my laptop to write about these things. It there it is a decision between my small life. The big life has nothing to do with it. But if I don't have a laptop. Going with that is the big knife. The beginning. For you. Try to understand this. You don't understand these things. Really grateful to God to give you understanding. Because. You are a fool. Ohh, OK, You know you never do things. I'm not saying that you don't know anything. No, but you don't understand. We know that you have knowledge, but you don't understand. What is the difference between a passion of understanding? On the. And the normal passion and maybe asking. It was a person of wonder standing on the thingy. But a normal person? No more. Like how you got people? When you meet me, When you see me. You may think you have. You think you have seen an alien. Yes, you are right. You're obviously another human being. because i have the body of saying saying saying saying that standing standing standing standing standing Yeah. Differentiating events. Using using names. My Muslim names, their Christian Christian names. Deal When you build, when you build on your bill or bill it will, it will, it will be. What you may have the half the book of heaven. And monkeys and monkeys. And monkeys. And monkeys. And monkeys. And monkeys. And monkeys. And monkeys. Ohh so people don't understand or understand those things? I'll not humanly so. Has to be good. Then right, they're not humanist. What would you tell me? OK. What would be the question that I would ask you would ask me if you fall off your phone if you find? Because I don't even know. Umm, I am a person of understanding. And many were all different with different from. But we are all under the mark. We are. We are all under the big life. And at the beginning if you are all having the same thoughts. It is in the small life. That things changed. They continued talking about this. We should tell you so tired. New people. I just didn't get you.
